

Steel Strike Spreading To Allied Groups; Thousands Idle

By WILLIAM A. SWARTWORTH

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Union and management negotiators marked time today as the basic steel industry strike spawned growing unemployment in other areas of the nation's economy.

There was no indication of any early break in the two-day strike of 500,000 United Steelworkers—the sixth major shutdown since World War II.

Patches of unemployment have sprung up and will grow daily in such allied industries as rail, coal, truck, inland water shipping, iron ore mining and processing.

Roughly 20,000 or more workers in these industries have been idled.

Others Are Idled

Those idled in allied industries include about 10,000 railroaders, 3,700 Great Lakes seamen, 5,000 coal miners and nearly 2,000 in truck company employees.

Joseph Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, summed up the deadlocked situation when he stated: "I don't think it's susceptible to easy or early solution."

At the direction of President Eisenhower, Finnegan had met separately with both sides in New York to explore their positions. He said afterward he plans no formal peace moves until Monday.

Earlier, the union proposed—and the industry rejected—a plan to submit disputed issues to a three-man fact-finding board. The industry said the facts already are well known.

More Money, Benefits

Basically, the union seeks increased wages and improved fringe benefits, contending the steel industry can afford it. The industry says that to grant the demands would be inflationary; it must hold the line on production costs, also have more leeway in effecting operation economies.

Steelworkers had been averaging $3.10 an hour. Their old three-year contract expired June 30, was extended two weeks until Tuesday midnight at the request of President Eisenhower.

The President said Wednesday at his news conference that there is no present emergency which would warrant government intervention under the Taft-Hartley Act.

Once again he urged both sides to exercise statesmanship and responsibility to get the strike settled quickly.

Five Weeks Supply

The strike has brought to a standstill nearly 90 per cent of the country's steelmaking capacity.

Most major steel users report they have sufficient steel stockpiled to permit uninterrupted production for at least several weeks.

System-wide flourishes went into effect today for 6,200 Pennsylvania Railroad employees. This is the biggest single layoff so far as a result of the strike.

David J. McDonald, USW president, planned to visit Bethlehem, Pa., this afternoon in the start of a tour of steel centers to meet striking union members.

Chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper planned to leave New York for a rest.

Relay Developments

Finnegan said in New York that he is reporting developments directly to Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, who, in turn, is relaying the information to the White House. He planned to return to Washington to arrange the Monday meetings. He added that he might visit Pittsburgh before Monday.

Before the strike began, President Eisenhower had rejected a proposal from the union that a fact-finding board be named to decide the deadlock. He said he lacked the legal authority to do that.

Cooling Off Period

The Taft-Hartley process also would involve naming a fact-finding board. After the board reported to the President, he then could

HOSPITAL DOES $32,619.77 IN FREE SERVICE

That the operation of the Annie M. Warner Hospital is no longer "small" business was made manifest when hospital directors at a meeting Wednesday evening presented the annual report for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1959, prepared by Philip Dunn and Company, certified public accountants.

Earned income for the 12 months beginning June 1, 1958, and ending May 31, 1959, was $573,905.67. Payroll for the same period totaled $359,965.85 and direct expenses $229,527.21 resulting in a loss of $15,587.39 which was offset by $14,488.81 of other income, including $2,500 from the Adams County Commissioners and state appropriations of $8,750.00, reducing the loss to $1,098.58.

Free service during the year totaled $32,619.77, an increase of $6,246.99 over the previous year.

Earned Income Increases

Earned income for the year increased $32,654.65 over the year before. Payroll costs increased $31,903.79 from last year's $328,062.06. Direct departmental expenses were reduced $471.97 while unallocated expenses increased $7,320.93. The principal increase in unallocated expenses was $6,246.99 in free services, $745.06 in social security taxes and $1,908.29 in the employee health and welfare program. Administrative expenses decreased $752.22 while utilities showed an increase of $417.26 and general maintenance an increase of $815.24.

The report was read and analyzed by Philip Dunn after which his associate, Donald Wagner, presented graphic charts of the various phases of the operation of the hospital.

President Richard A. Brown and the directors present expressed themselves as pleased with the results of the year and resolutions of appreciation were adopted complimenting Administrator Walter B. Dillon and the staff as well as the accounting firm for their presentation of the annual report.

Resolutions of appreciation were adopted in behalf of Carl Baum and his committee for their planning of the opening of the south wing.

The building and grounds committee was directed to make studies of changes in the original building areas recently vacated by the kitchen and patient rooms on the first floor.

The directors voted to renew the hospital's contract with the Blue Cross.

The directors expressed official appreciation to Jacob Britcher, local insurance agent, for instituting an insurance engineering survey of the hospital buildings which resulted in substantial decrease in insurance costs.

In this connection the directors adopted a recommendation that a room be constructed in which to store oxygen thus earning a further rate credit.

Plans for the new surgical facilities are still being studied by architects who will present them when completed to the new building committee for examination. It was announced that no meeting will be held in August.

BURGARD WILL FILED

Lavere Burgard, East Berlin, is named executor in the will of Lillie A. Burgard, late of Hamilton Twp., who died June 9. Wehler and Lillian I. Baker. Papers filed with the will list the estate as $7,348.65 personal property.

Says Reds Will Never Start War

SOSNOWIEC, Poland (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today pledged that the Soviet Union would never start a war against anyone, anywhere at any time.

He told a cheering throng of delegates at a meeting of miners unions in this Silesian industrial town: "I give you our solemn pledge that never, never, never shall we launch war against any country anywhere at any time."

He said he did not believe capitalist countries would start war either but claimed that was because the "balance of forces" is now overwhelmingly in favor of Communists.

NAME WEANER CHAIRMAN OF CIVIL WAR UNIT

Arthur Weaner, Gettysburg R. 4, an officer of the Adams County Historical Society, Wednesday night was elected temporary chairman by the Adams County Civil War Centennial Observance Committee at its organization meeting in the courthouse.

The committee, with representation from throughout the county, is scheduled to promote observance of the Civil War Centennial from 1961 to 1965 in the various sections of the county.

Mrs. Della Hershey, representing Latimore Twp. at the meeting, held that "this will probably be the last chance to gather together the history of Adams Countians in the Civil War. More than 3,000 county men took part. Various companies were raised and went into service. Each township and borough had its own home guard units. There are still available many records and recollections which can be gathered together to give an idea of what our ancestors did in the war."

She noted that her own father had fought in the Battle of Gettysburg, as well as other battles of the Civil War.

To Compile History

George Iskin, Fairfield Joint School System principal, said that the school there, in conjunction with Frank M. Moore, Fairfield historian, had already begun a compilation of the history of the Fairfield section during the Civil War.

Weaner indicated that one of the first steps of the county committee probably will be the establishment of a special history committee to aid in the securing of information and the writing of a history of Adams Countians' participation in the war.

Luther M. Lady, Butler Twp. representative on the committee, said the county committee will probably form a ministerial subcommittee to promote observances by the older churches of the part their congregations played in the Civil War.

History Classes To Help

Arthur M. Gordon, Cumberland Twp. representative, and Inskip suggested school history classes could do much to help gather the facts concerning countians' participation in the war.

F. E. Coulson, York Springs representative, said he still has a number of records made by

GETTYSBURG SHOE TO OPEN NEW PLANT IN EAST BERLIN

An East Berlin branch of the Gettysburg Shoe Co. is soon to be built. The office of W. K. Hood and Associates, York, designers for Max Kandel, architect, in New York City, announced that construction bids will be asked by the end of the week for a concrete block masonry building, 243 feet by 146 feet, to house the new industry.

The building, which is to be steel framed, will be situated near the west end of the borough just north of King St. It will also consist of an office section, 30 feet by 123 feet, of brick masonry.

The structure will be used for manufacturing and warehousing with two-thirds of the area to be used for manufacturing. Two loading docks are included in the design.

To Cost $200,000

It is estimated by the designers that the construction cost will be just short of $200,000. $50,000 of this amount was subscribed to by East Berlin businessmen and area farmers.

Once the machinery is in place the company expects to provide employment for 150 workers. "And with the building designed for future expansion, the chances are that more employees will be added later," a spokesman from the Hood office reported. This definitely is not a warehousing building, but one designed principally for manufacturing," he added.

The Gettysburg Shoe Co. is owned by a corporation with offices in New York City and is headed by Ben Passweg. The corporation has factories throughout the country and in foreign countries.

The East Berlin branch will not actually assemble complete shoes but will make component parts for the various other plants in the organization.

LOTT ELECTED DIRECTOR BY APPLE GROUP

William M. Lott, Gardners, was elected Pennsylvania state director for the National Apple Institute at a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Appalachian Apple Service, a four-state growers promotion association, in Martinsburg, W. Va.

Lott is also one of the Pennsylvania directors in the Appalachian organization.

The board re-elected Fred C. Matson, president; Malcolm M. Brown, treasurer; and Carroll R. Miller, secretary-manager, all of Martinsburg, and John P. Caspar, Hancock, Md., vice president.

Others named as directors in the national organization were Lloyd Balderston, III, Colorado, Md., for Maryland, and Paul M. Hawkins, Martinsburg, for West Virginia.

Approve Merger

The board approved "in principle" a proposed merger of the two national apple associations, National Apple Institute and International Apple Association, both with headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Approved also was participation by Appalachian in the quarter-million-dollar 1959-60 National Apple Promotion Program, carried jointly by regional apple growers' associations coast-to-coast. The program continues the long-standing, successful work with schools, in research, in apple publicity, and will for the first time launch a campaign of consumer advertising through the national "home" magazines—Ladies Home Journal and Readers Digest. The tie-in with General Mills' Betty Crocker pie mixes will be pushed actively for the second season.

Approved also was a program of advertising and dealer-service work for the 11-state principal marketing area for apples in the Central East and the South-east, in close teamwork with the Virginia State Apple Commission. The approved program is for the early part of the coming season, late September and October.

Named Director Of East Berlin Bank

Harry R. Mummert, East Berlin R. 2, was appointed a director of the Peoples State Bank, East Berlin, by the board of directors at their regular meeting Tuesday. Mummert will fill the vacancy resulting from the death of P. Lawrence Hoover June 30, 1959.

Laud Volunteer Nurses' Aids

The Adams County Red Cross chapter paid tribute today to a list of 12 Red Cross-trained nurses' aids who are on call for volunteer duty at the Warner Hospital and who give on the average two to three days of service each week at the hospital.

Mrs. Peggy P. Hill, executive secretary of the Red Cross chapter, said "these girls never fail to respond to a call for help from the hospital even though the duty often comes at inconvenient hours—like 7 o'clock Sunday morning. They are not paid for their services but donate their time to assist the regular nursing staff."

The list includes: Mrs. Emily Treas, Mrs. Fay Reeder, Mrs. Evelyn Knox, Mrs. Dorothy Myers, Mrs. Esther Weaver, Mrs. Sally Roth, Mrs. Gertrude Winebrenner, Mrs. Doris Thomas, Mrs. Barbara Spence, Miss Ruth McIlhenny, Mrs. Phyllis Hess and Mrs. Doris Wahl, the Red Cross chairman for nurses' aids.

Most of the 12 were members of the training class recently capped at the hospital at the completion of their course of instruction.

FIREMEN SEEK TEN MEMBERS TO FILL ROSTER

The Gettysburg Fire Department is seeking about 10 young men who wish to become members of the department to fill out the active roster, Raymond Menges, president, said today. The subject of a membership drive was one of several discussed Wednesday night at a meeting of department officers and chairmen and co-chairmen of the various 96th anniversary committees.

The question of disposition of a chandelier which hangs in the upstairs hall of the engine house was discussed and it was decided that sale of the piece will be proposed at the next regular meeting of the department.

Th chandelier is one of two which once hung in the Wills House and which were presented to the fire department some years ago.

Junior Firemen

The 24 firemen present for the officers' meeting evidenced "keen interest" in the proposal to organize a junior fire department in the community, Menges reported. The committee which has the junior organization plan under study is to meet during the coming week and to report on plans at the next department meeting, he added.

Chief Donald Staub said that fire drills with other fire companies in the area are planned. The Gettysburg department will participate in a drill scheduled in Arendtsville next Wednesday night.

STUDY TRAFFIC LIGHTS AGAIN AT CROSS KEYS

The possibility of traffic lights at the Cross Keys intersection is being discussed again but no action is immediately contemplated.

The Adams County Commissioners said today they have met with supervisors of Oxford, Hamilton and Berwick Twp., on the question but were unable to find any immediate answer.

The three townships join at Cross Keys and any traffic lights put there will apparently have to be paid for by the townships involved and will have to be maintained by those townships, the commissioners said they learned from the meeting.

County Not Involved

Cost of any proposed traffic light system would probably require a bond issue which could be effected only if approval were given by the people of the townships by ballots at some election.

The commissioners said that at a meeting of more than an hour in length no immediate answers were found: "The meeting was held generally for discussion and information," they said.

Supervisors of the three townships expressed concern at the possible cost of a traffic light system, although no figures were available as to actual cost.

Whether the preliminary meeting will lead to eventual establishment of lights depends upon future consideration by the supervisors. The commissioners said their preliminary check of laws pertaining to such installations indicated that the county would be forbidden to provide any funds toward the work.

May Go To Phila. For Eye Surgery

Dale Weaver, 15-year-old son of Sanford Weaver, Biglerville R. 1, may go to a Philadelphia hospital later this week for surgery to remove a piece of metal from his eye.

Dale and a cousin, Terry Taylor, were working on a "motor cart" at his home Monday evening when a piece of metal, believed to have broken from a hammer, struck the Weaver boy below his eye. He was taken to Dr. Raymond W. Hale Jr., Arendtsville, who sent him on to York for further examination.

He is now a patient in the York Hospital where x-ray examination disclosed the bit of metal lodged against the eye. Doctors at York suggested that they may decide that Dale should be moved to Philadelphia for further treatment.

John H. Baum Gets Top Advertising Job

Baum, Lemoyne, who joined the Patriot-News staff in Harrisburg the day after he graduated from Gettysburg College in 1939, has been promoted to advertising director of the Harrisburg newspapers. He succeeds E. A. Doepeke Jr., advertising director since 1948, who has been appointed general manager for the Patriot-News Company.

Except for service in the U. S. Navy which began in 1944, Baum has been with the Harrisburg newspapers since 1939. He is president of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce. He has been president of the church council in Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church at Lemoyne, is a member of the Masonic orders at Harrisburg and has been active in many community activities over the years.

He is a younger brother of Carl A. Baum, manager of the Gettysburg Times.

Countian Is Director Of Pusan Hospital; Need Funds

The director of the Pusan Children's Charity Hospital, Inc., in Pusan, Korea, is hoping Adams Countians will become sufficiently interested in the hospital to donate sums which may keep it in existence.

Daniel M. Roth, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Roth, Orrtanna R. 1, and a graduate of Gettysburg High School in 1954, has served as director of the hospital since February 9.

Recently he wrote his parents: "I figured out the difference between the actual amount of money received to run the hospital and the budgeted amount for the first three months of 1959 and found we are lacking over 2,500,000 Hwan—or about $3,000. I'm really afraid for this place, and unless I can get some help which is very unlikely, Pusan Children's Charity Hospital might soon be a thing of the past. The trouble is it's so uncertain. There is no church or similar organization back of it to really take the responsibility."

Report Reds Easing Up On Observers At Secret Talks

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union has eased up on its demands that East and West Germany sit in on secret talks at the Big Four foreign ministers conference, informed sources said today. The Soviet maneuver had threatened serious delays in the talks.

Informants said the Soviets indicated a readiness to take part in social functions from which the Germans would be barred.

Much of the real negotiations in the early phases of the conference took place at secret sessions. Public sessions, at which the Germans sat as advisers, produced little more than speechmaking.

Wanted Reds Included
Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko threw the conference into confusion Monday after it returned from a recess by announcing opposition to secret sessions unless East and West Germany took part.

The outlines of the compromise emerged after a dinner conference Wednesday night at which Jakob Malik, Soviet ambassador to London, was guest of Sir Patrick Reilly, British ambassador to Moscow.

The conference still remained snarled, however, over a solution for the Berlin crisis — the basic issue that drew the four powers to Geneva.

West Stands Fast
The West stood fast against any Soviet truce formula for Berlin granting new power and prestige to the East German Communist government.

Western leaders said they would not go along with Soviet efforts to obtain a Berlin deal recognizing the East and West German regimes as political equals.

The West at Wednesday's session of the foreign ministers' conference rejected the Soviet proposal for creation of an all-German committee of East and West representatives as the payoff for agreeing to an 18-month moratorium on the Soviet demand that the occupation of West Berlin end.

Allied Proposal
The Allies now must come up with a counterproposal.

A likely Western proposal is for almost continuous Big Four consultation during the truce period, with the Germans called in as necessary only as advisers.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko has given no indication the Soviet government would accept such a plan.

On the contrary, his tactic seems to be to use the Soviet threat to West Berlin to pressure the Western powers into turning unification negotiations over to the Germans, with the East German government recognized as having the same power and position as Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's regime.

The foreign ministers scheduled another semipublic session today.

Local Man Given Gas Safety Award

A safety record matching anything in the natural gas industry has been set by 58 employees in Manufacturers Light & Heat Co.'s gas measurement department, it was announced today.

They have completed 10 years work without a disabling injury of any kind. The mark involves over 1,000,000 manhours without a lost-time accident.

Supervisor R. W. Welch said employees drove over seven million miles (14,000 per year per man) in setting the record. Cited by the American Gas Assn., the department operates and maintains 4,000 meters at measuring stations in five states for Manufacturers and several sister firms.

Engraved ball point desk sets were given to every employee by Manufacturers.

Area Supervisor Wilbur M. Meese is in charge of operations here. He presented an award to Edward J. Rohanna who has been employed by the gas company for 13 years. He has been a resident of Gettysburg since 1950. His home is at 228 Highland Ave.

Foreign Steel Is Pouring Into Texas

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Foreign steel poured into Texas through the port of Houston today as the nationwide steel strike entered its second day.

Foreign steelmakers "are throwing the book at us" in an effort to take over the market, said Walter H. Leo, sales manager of the strikebound Sheffield Steel Co. plant at Houston.

About 21,600 tons of the metal from Belgium and Japan was unloaded from five ships at Houston Wednesday. Two other ships were waiting empty berths.

Leo said foreign steel prices rose $6 to $9 a ton Wednesday "and my salesmen report customers have been told the price will go up more."

The huge Sheffield plant on the Houston ship canal was shut down as 3,000 workers joined in the strike.

Two other Houston plants were picketed.

SOLAR FLARE ROCKET FAILS

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 21-foot solar flare rocket hurled aloft from Point Arguello, Calif., to record radiation failed to attain its expected altitude of 150 miles.

The Naval Research Laboratory reported today that the Asp second stage of the two-stage Nike-Asp combination apparently did not fire.

It said that after the Nike booster rocket dropped off a mile in the air the rocket coasted on only about 100,000 feet.

The cause of the failure of the second stage which would have stepped the recording payload on to 150 miles was not determined.

Despite the rocket's failure to attain the anticipated altitude, the laboratory said much information about cosmic rays was obtained by the rocket's 50 pounds of instruments.

The rocket, launched Tuesday, was the first of 12 solar flare probes designed to gather information about the flares—explosions on the sun—which sometimes blackout radio and wire communications.

RAIL STOCKS SLUMP BADLY

NEW YORK (AP) — Rails slumped badly while steels and aircrafts also helped to drag the stock market irregularly lower early this afternoon. Trading was active.

Losses of pivotal stocks ran generally from fractions to about a point.

As the steel strike entered its second day, fears mounted that it may be a long one. The rails reacted on the basis that they would suffer most from a drop in shipments due to the closedown of steel mills.

Losses of steels and aircrafts were moderate except for Douglas Aircraft which sank more than 3 points after it omitted its dividend.

Steel Strike

instruct the attorney general to seek a federal injunction requiring the strike to end for an 80-day cooling-off period.

McDonald's proposal Wednesday called for a representative on the board from both the union and industry with a neutral member to be named by Chief Justice Earl Warren.

McDonald told newsmen in New York that the deadlock is "very serious" and he renewed his charge that the industry is trying to "break the union." He vowed that the union would not be broken.

Reject Union Request

The union president renewed his plea to steel executives to participate directly in negotiations with the union. The executives had repeatedly rejected this, asserting that their four-man bargaining team is fully authorized to represent them.

McDonald said the union is ready to meet at any time with industry representatives if management is ready to make a wage offer.

Cooper reiterated that the companies have always been willing to negotiate "fair, noninflationary agreements." He said again, however, that there can be no wage increase that will boost the companies' total labor bill.

Thousands Of Workers, Many Businesses Will Suffer If Steel Strike Lasts Very Long

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Each time a strike occurs in an essential industry affecting the whole economy—as now in steel — this question comes up:

Are we reaching a point where the government—meaning a majority of the people—can no longer permit and must forbid a strike in such an industry?

A strike in any industry was pretty much a private affair years ago when the government's revenue needs were smaller and the various people, plants and industries were far less interdependent than now.

But the American society is now highly complex and interdependent. A strike in one big industry can send out waves that splash thousands of workers, hundreds of businesses, and maybe drown many of them.

Could Be Damaging
For example: This steel strike comes at a time when the nation is recovering from last year's slump. If it's short, it won't do much damage. It will do a lot if it lasts long.

If the strike continues long enough, other industries will use up their steel supplies and have to close, throwing many thousands out of work.

As their income—and the profits of their shut-down plants—are cut off, the national Treasury will suffer from loss of income tax revenue just when it is badly needed.

Not Private Strike
Thus a steel strike — unlike a strike in any industry in years past — is no longer truly private. It already affects and, if it lasts long enough, could paralyze a broad part of the national economy.

But individual rights—the right of employees to quit a job and of an employer to shut down his plant—and the right of both sides to work out their wages and profits must be balanced against the general welfare.

Thus the question: Is the President in the near future likely to propose or Congress to approve a law forbidding a strike in an essential industry? Very likely not.

Political Dynamite
It would be political dynamite. Both unions and employers want a minimum of government interference. If the government through law could forbid a strike, it would almost certainly then impose compulsory arbitration.

This means that arbitrators appointed by the government would listen to both sides and give an opinion both sides would have to accept. If the government did that, out of justice it probably would have to do more.

In the end it would probably have to step in and regulate both wages and prices, which would mean regulating profits too. That would be true governmental control. Eventually it might have to take over the industry.

Adopt T-H Act
In 1947 Congress foresaw the national danger of a big strike some day when it passed the Taft-Hartley Act. But still, while providing machinery for stalling off a strike, Congress stopped short of forbidding it altogether.

That law lets the President prevent a strike for 80 days while efforts are made to get both sides to reach agreement. But, after the enforced delay, the strike can go on.

Body Of Missing Trucker Is Found

An intensive search for a missing 3-year-old Fulton County boy, who was found Tuesday, uncovered the body of a truck driver who had been missing two months.

The dead man was identified as Forrest Everett Reynolds, 40, Indianapolis, Ind., whose decomposed body was found beneath a truck tractor along an abandoned road in Fulton County, the general vicinity of where Daniel Fischer, 3, was found.

Following an autopsy by Dr. W. E. B. Hall, Chambersburg Hospital pathologist, at the Sipes Funeral Home, Harrisonville, Reynolds' death was attributed to carbon monoxide poisoning. Dr. Russell C. McLucas, Fulton County coroner, termed the death suicide.

Reynolds' head was near the exhaust pipe, and the ignition switch of the truck was on. The body was discovered by Girard Harclerode.

Authority

In Cumberland Twp. It was indicated that if the Authority can obtain state permission to sell bonds to finance the operation — after the feasibility survey is completed—it would be about a year before the Authority could go into actual operation for disposal of garbage and debris. The feasibility survey would take several weeks or more and then the obtaining of state approval and ultimate sale of bonds would take several months before the Authority can get around to hiring men and buying equipment to handle the problem.

MISSING PAIR VISITED FIELD

A teen-age brother and sister, who had been missing from their Dillsburg R. 3 home for nearly 24 hours, were picked up in York Springs Tuesday afternoon and returned home, the boy pushing a broken bicycle and his sister carrying a small suitcase holding their pet cat.

The missing youngsters, Patsy Gochenour, 15, and her brother, Donny, 13, children of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Gochenour, left home riding tandem on the bicycle. They had two suitcases and carried the pet in a wire basket.

The trip took them to Gettysburg, where they toured the battlefield. They were on their way home when they were picked up in York Springs.

A widespread search was begun Monday night when it was discovered the children were missing.

The children said that after they had visited the battlefield it was getting late in the day and they were not certain of the way home. They said they spent Monday night sleeping in a field.

enlisted in the PAX program of the Mennonite Central Committee and was sent to Korea in September, 1958. He was stationed at Taegu, and helped in clearing out buildings and establishing living quarters for staff members and storage of relief materials. He also assisted in the distribution of food and clothing for needy persons in Korea. Then he was named director of the hospital. Donations may be sent to The Friends of Pusan Children's Charity Hospital, Inc., 122 Maryland Ave., N.E., Washington 2, D. C.

Established In 1950
The hospital came into existence in the autumn of 1950 when Pusan was swarming with refugees from the combat areas. Abandoned children foraged daily in the streets for food and huddled together for warmth in doorways. Many were ill and in need of medical attention. All were homeless and hungry. American soldiers dug a room under a hillside building and U. S. Navy ships anchored at Pusan donated paint, food, and wiring. A group of military men donated money for clothing, food, medical care, and the hospital was in existence. In July, 1953, when the cease fire came in Korea, the ever-changing sponsors of the children's hospital decided to establish a permanent hospital. The Armed Forces Assistance to Korea Program and the Evangelical and Reformed Church provided materials which led to the construction of the present hospital in 1955 on the grounds of the Medical College of the Pusan University.

Many Are Served
Police bring abandoned or orphaned infants and children to the hospital where they are treated until well enough to be taken to orphanages. The staff includes Koreans, Americans, and other nationalities. Surgeons of the Pusan Medical College perform the operations on a gratuitous basis. The x-ray equipment is a gift from the British government. Refrigerators were donated by a roofing union in California.

Last year the hospital received 1,300 abandoned children, hospitalized 450, and served 106 orphanages representing 11,000 children in the Pusan area.

Judge's Laundry Not Paid For By Board
WISCONSIN RAPIDS, Wis. (AP)—A murmur ran through the Wood County Board chambers as the committee chairman, reading a list of bills submitted for approval, came to this item:

"Jail laundry — Judge's Laundry, $8.10."

"Since when," demanded one of the newly-elected rural supervisors, "are we paying for the judge's laundry?"

It was all smoothed over when a city supervisor explained that Judge's Laundry is a local cleaning establishment and the bill was for laundry work for the county jail.

NAME IS UPHELD
MILWAUKEE (AP) — Atty. F. Ryan Duffy Jr. won his battle to have his name placed on a ballot as candidate for civil judge despite a citizen's contention that a candidate's first name, not his second, be spelled out.

The legal opinion supporting Duffy came from Milwaukee County Corporation Counsel C. Stanley Perry.

Jockey Joe Culmone was born in Daleia, Sicily.

BOY, 17, HEADS OLDER GROUP FOR PENSIONS

READING, Pa. (AP)—Uninvited, but not unwelcome, a youth has tossed in his lot with the old folks.

A 17-year-old boy was elected president Wednesday of an old people's club which plugs for government pensions for everyone over 60.

No one could foresee the consequences when the Townsend Club No. 1 asked Robert J. Pastor, a senior at Central Catholic High School, to a meeting two weeks ago to play his accordion.

"I hear you need a new president," Pastor said. "I might as well take it."

Successes Man, 73
And take it he did, without platform or a campaign. He succeeded Paul W. Beechert, 73, president the past 11 years.

He also pulled in a young running mate, Marvin C. Kline, 14, a 10th-grader, was elected vice president. Alice Spangler, a grandmother, was elected secretary.

None of the 12 active members, most of them over 60, wanted the presidency, it seems. And, as one of them explained, "We need young blood."

The club was organized in the 30s by Dr. Francis Townsend. The original aim was $200 monthly pensions for everyone over 60. The movement has died out, but several chapters have carried on, primarily as social clubs. They still plug for pensions. The chapter here has lowered its sights to $140 a month.

Pastor spent his time trying to dodge reporters and photographers. "No, I haven't any particular reason for wanting to become president," he said.

He tried to avoid the cameras. Puffing nervously on a cigarette, he was violating one of the club's cardinal rules: No smoking.

10 OPPONENTS OF GAS RAISE AGREE ON CUT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Ten opponents of a natural gas rate increase sought by Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. have agreed that 6.4 per cent would be a "reasonable and fair" profit for the Pittsburgh firm.

Manufacturers, which originally had requested a 6.75 per cent rate of return on its investment, entered into the agreement which was made part of the record at a Public Utility Commission hearing Wednesday.

However, the agreement is not binding on the PUC which still must determine if the firm is entitled to an increase. It will do so on its own determination of Manufacturers' fair property valuation. It is possible, though not likely, the PUC would decide the firm is entitled to more than a 6.4 per cent return.

Hearings Are Recessed
The hearings, held here for two days by PUC Examiner George Stewart, were recessed. They were tentatively scheduled to resume July 30 in Harrisburg.

Manufacturers has asked for a $4,796,500 annual rate increase to offset higher operating costs. The PUC has suspended the effective date of the increase until Oct. 14 to permit further study.

The firm serves some 250,000 consumers in 25 western Pennsylvania counties.

Jobless Man Who Wooed A Young Heiress Is Jailed

By HAL R. COOPER
LONDON (AP)—A jobless truckdriver who wooed an underage British heiress in defiance of a judge's order was sent to prison today for contempt of court.

Edward Langley, 27, was denounced by Justice Harry Vaisey as a "penniless adventurer." Vaisey added that if Langley thought he was going to be free in a week or so "he had better think again."

Three hours later, the other party to the ill-starred romance, 20-year-old Katharine Dowsett, pretty daughter of a millionaire Lincolnshire shipbuilder, was freed from prison after a closed hearing before Judge Vaisey.

Can Be Jailed Indefinitely
Miss Dowsett was sent to prison last Friday for violating a court order obtained by her father forbidding her to have any further contact with her suitor. Under British court rules both may be detained indefinitely until the judge is satisfied they have learned that court orders must be obeyed.

Katharine met Langley several months ago while he was playing the role of a well-heeled man-about-town in London night clubs.

Her father, Harry Dowsett, decided Langley was not quite up to standard as a suitor and forbade Katharine to continue the association. The couple eloped to Scotland. In England, parental consent is required for marriage until a boy or girl is 21. In Scotland minors may marry despite their parents if they meet a 22-day residence requirement.

Defy Court Order
Dowsett trailed Katharine and Langley to Scotland and persuaded her to come home to talk things over. She still said she was determined to marry Langley. Dowsett then had her made a ward of the High Court, which ordered her to stay away from Langley and Langley to stay away from her. Their answer to that was a second elopement to Scotland.

This time they were brought back by a court bailiff and Miss Dowsett was popped into prison. It was Langley's turn to face the music today.

Langley admitted that for months he had been unemployed and living on money borrowed from friends in the night club set.

Tots, Teens Take Fashion Spotlight
ROME (AP) — Tots and teenagers took the fashion spotlight from their elders today as the Italian high style fall showings got under way in Rome.

Wearing Zingone's specialized creations and their best behavior, the miniature models paraded down the ramp with professional aplomb.

Leather lapels and metal buttons are the latest thing in daytime trappings, but long-haired fur collars and pom-pom topped tam-o'shanters seem here to stay, at least until next spring.

Pleated plaid skirts are back in favor for grade-school society, just as they are expected to be in the station wagon set. This year the tailored suburban look is getting the high fashion focus.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

County Donates $500 For Child Welfare Work: The Adams county commissioners at their weekly meeting today voted a $500 appropriation to the Adams County Child Welfare Association as "the most economical and most efficient method" of meeting the board's obligation as successors of the now extinct poor board to look after the welfare of county children.

The commissioners had been asked in a letter from the Rev. Dwight F. Putnam, Gettysburg, president of the child welfare society, for an appropriation from county funds to help meet the association's first year expense budget of $3,000. The welfare association president did not ask for a specific sum.

James Appoints L. W. Kuhn To Relief Board: Governor Arthur James this morning appointed Lloyd W. Kuhn, Bendersville banker, as a member of the Adams County Public Assistance Board, according to an Associated Press dispatch received from Harrisburg.

Mr. Kuhn, cashier of the Bendersville National bank for the last 10 years, will fill the vacancy on the board caused by the refusal of D. C. Jacobs, Arendtsville fruitgrower, to accept reappointment.

Two From Gettysburg Have Offices In P. O. Clerks' Unit: Jesse E. Snyder, Baltimore street, was elected vice president of the Pennsylvania branch of the United Association of Post Office Clerks at the annual meeting in Johnstown.

Mrs. Carrie Hull, Chambersburg St., was elected vice president of the ladies auxiliary.

School Levy Totals $56,011: The Gettysburg school tax duplicate for the current year was turned over to Collector H. H. Thomas this morning after school authorities had approved the collector's bond.

The duplicate this year amounts to $56,011.60 and for the first time in years consists entirely of real estate taxes. The school board in May voted a 20-mill levy on real estate and dropped the per capita tax of $3.

Miss Rosensteel Is Bride Of J. M. Sheads, Teacher: Miss Marie Kathleen Rosensteel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Rosch, became the bride of Jacob Melchior Sheads, North Stratton street, in a single ring ceremony performed Tuesday evening in the rectory of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, West High street.Farrell-Bray Wedding Held: Timothy Edward Farrell son of Edward J. Farrell, East Lincoln avenue, and Miss Marie Virginia Bray of Altoona were united in marriage Wednesday morning by the Rev. Fr. William Farrell, Germantown, an uncle of the bridegroom in Sacred Heart Catholic church, Altoona.Local Hotel Changes Name: Gettysburg lost an 83-year-old "name" today when the Eagle hotel at the corner of Chambersburg and North Washington streets publicly dropped that title and prepared to continue through Gettysburg history as "Hotel Eberhart."

Since the hotel was established in 1856 by a group of shareholders that included Thaddeus Stevens and other prominent Gettysburg citizens, it has been the "Eagle."

Acting Postmaster Is Named For Greenstone: Maurice W. Wills Friday received word of his appointment as acting postmaster at Greenstone, Adams county. He succeeds his brother, Clarence A. Wills, Fairfield, who resigned some time ago after serving more than 20 years.

Clarence A. Wills, president of the Gettysburg National bank, was Greenstone's first postmaster, having been appointed to that office by Postmaster General Albert S. Burleson on December 1, 1916.

Today's Talk

BE YOUR BEST SELF

I have known people who seemed to enjoy demonstrating their worst self. They are the uninfluential, whereas those who are forever trying to show their best self keep drawing others to their standard. They keep gathering friends. They are the leaders.

We need to study ourselves so that we can continually be our best and live our best. We need to know ourselves so as to influence others. In so doing we enlarge life itself. I have noted that the dominant and free draw others to them wherever they make a stand.

By being your best self all the time you help to light up a world. You have a living personality. You look about you and advertise the fact that this world of yours is a good one. Lots of room, you see, to be anything you most want to be.

Lift people. Never depress them. Love people. They are neither better nor worse than any of us. We are a human family in search of our better self, so that we may rent it out. Be your best self. Add that much more to the happiness of this world. It's when trouble comes, and fears are felt, that "a fellow needs a friend." Be that friend!

If we are forever searching for our best self we know that it exists very, very near. It is what we may most want to be! We can keep dismissing our former self. Alexander went because he imagined that he had no more worlds to conquer! We can be happy in the thought that just to conquer ourselves may mean more than to conquer a world!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Beauty in Little Things."

Just Folks

THE MEN OF THE DAY
In times like these, or any times
That might occur, it seems to meThe kind of men we really need
Are not the men whose names
we seeEmblazoned in the public press,
Whose photographs are daily shown,But men who plod from day to dayAnd mind no business but their own.Let heroes come and heroes go;
The warriors on land or sea,
They serve their country well, I know,But where, I ask, would heroes
beIf here at home there did not toil
The nation's sinew, thigh and bone,The patient, honest, plodding men
Who mind no business but their own.Let others sing a song of praise
To those that in the limelight
stand;I'd rather cheer along their ways
The humble workers of the land.Who'er they be, where'er they be,
I praise the Army of Unknown,
The men who plod along through lifeAnd mind no business but their own.Protected, 1959, by The George

H. KILLBREW

GETS HIS 31ST

TO NIP TIGERS

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

On a rainy afternoon in Mid-March Harmon Killbrew shrugged and said, "I think I may be able to hit better if I can hang on long enough to get a good look at the pitchers."

Four months later, on a rainy night in mid-July, Harmon swung and put himself nine games ahead of Babe Ruth's record 60 home run pace.

That shot Wednesday night was Killbrew's 31st, tops in the majors. It touched off a 3-0 victory over Detroit that pulled the Washington Senators past the Tigers into fifth place in the American League.

Ahead Of Ruth

The game, held to five innings by rain, was the Nats' 85th. Ruth didn't hit No. 31 until his New York Yankees were in their 94th game when he set the record in 1927.

Rookie Bob Allison drove in the other Senator runs with a pair of doubles while Camillo Pascual, winning 10 for the first time in the majors, put the Tigers away on one hit. Jim Bunning was the loser.

It was the only AL game played. The others were rained out. In the National League, Los Angeles jumped past Milwaukee into second place, a game behind rain-idled San Francisco, with a 3-0 victory over Pittsburgh on Don Drysdale's three-hitter. The Chicago Cubs beat Milwaukee 5-2. Cincinnati rapped St. Louis 11-5.

RARE PICTURE OF A SUNSPOT IS REVEALED

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—An astrophotographer who focused his sun-shooting camera by television more than 15 miles away proudly proclaimed Wednesday night he got the best picture ever taken of a sunspot.

Dr. Martin Schwarzschild of Princeton University displayed a well-defined photograph of a sunspot 25,000 miles in diameter.

The picture was one of 8,000 taken by an automatic camera carried more than 80,000 feet into the air by a plastic balloon last Saturday. The telescopic camera was focused by remote control, using an air-to-ground television system to let ground crews see what the camera's eye saw.

Dr. Schwarzschild said the pictures gave scientists a new idea of the effects of the great magnetic fields surrounding sunspots, of solar explosions.

He said temperature variations within the strong magnetic field were not as great as previously thought. The variations are between the hot gasses pouring away from the sun and the cooler gasses falling back into it.

GIANTS HIT

BAD WEATHER

WITH PHILS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bill Rigney is beginning to wonder if last-place Philadelphia will be the stumbling block in San Francisco's bid for the National League pennant.

It's not the problem of beating the Phillies that bothers him; it's the weather.

Rain postponed two games here in April, Tuesday's twi-nighter, and Wednesday night's single game. Another twi-nighter is scheduled tonight.

"We only come back here one more time and I don't like the idea of having to play three doubleheaders in a row not in this kind of rain," the Giants manager said.

"We've only got nine pitchers, and five of them have been doing almost all the work. If these doubleheaders keep piling up, we're certainly going to have to get another pitcher, but right at the moment I don't know where."

Rigney still feels Milwaukee is the team to beat, although right now the Giants hold first place by a game over Los Angeles. The Braves are third, 1½ games back.

Nation's Top Lady Golfers Tee Off

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Ninety-three of the nation's finest female golfers tee off today for the start of the 72-hole International Open Golf Tournament. Beverly Hanson, who shattered the Alliance Country Club course record in a tuneup Wednesday, predicted 283 strokes would win the title.

The blonde Miss Hanson, a touring professional from Indio, Calif., was rated one of the top contenders after firing a two-under par 69 over the 6,253-yard course. It was five strokes better than the former record by Mrs. Zella Bradshaw of the host club.

Others rated highly in the medal play chase for top money out of the $12,500 purse are Betsy Rawls, of Spartanburg, S.C., the year's leading money winner; national Open champion Mickey Wright, of Bonita, Calif., and veteran Patty Berg, of St. Andrews, Ill.

Jensen Is Nearing Major Loop Mark

BOSTON (AP) — Jackie Jensen was threatening to close ground on a major league record today, but the Red Sox right fielder refused to think about the possibility.

Facing an afternoon doubleheader with the second place (by .002) Chicago White Sox after Wednesday night's game was rained out, Jensen had a chance to match the mark of 12 consecutive hits set by former Boston Manager Mike Higgins and duplicated by Baltimore's Walt Dropo.

Jackie has hit safely in his last seven official trips to the plate. "I'm not even thinking of it," Jensen said. "Five hits is a long way to go."

ALEX OLMEDA AND BARTZEN SHINE EARLY

CHICAGO (AP)—Alex Olmedo, making up for lost time, and Bernard (Tut) Bartenzen, playing his usual mechanical game with the usual successful results, have swept into today's quarter-finals of the National Clay Court Tennis Tournament.

Olmedo won three singles matches Wednesday in order to catch up with a brilliant field of United States and foreign players who had begun play Monday.

Alex, Wimbledon champion from Los Angeles and Peru, had been delayed in his arrival by a lengthy flight from Europe. He later teamed with Earl Buchholz, Jr., St. Louis, to protect their No. 1 doubles seeding with an easy win over Chester Demus and Len Anderson, both of River Forest, Ill.

McKay Upset

Barry McKay, Dayton, Ohio, No. 2 singles seed behind Olmedo, also had arrived late from Europe, but he advanced only one round Wednesday before 19-year-old Larry Nagler of North Hollywood, Calif., upset him 6-4, 6-2.

Nagler moved into the round of 16 with a victory over Ron Fisher, Houston, 6-4, 6-4.

Bartenzen, 31, brushed aside Mike Green of Miami, 6-2, 6-3. Tut, from Dallas, is seeded third.

Art Andrew, 21, former Big Ten champion at the University of Iowa, worked the only other major upset of the day, defeating Buchholz, seeded fourth, 2-6, 6-4, 9-7.

Whitney Reed, Alameda, Calif., turned back Ian Vermaak of South Africa, the top-ranked foreign entry, 6-2, 6-4.

Bob Rosburg, runnerup in the 1959 National Open golf tournament, tied for fifth place in the Canadian Open one week later.

loser Carl Willey (-4) for a 3-1 lead.

Frank Robinson of the Reds took the National League runs-batted-in lead with 85, one more than the Cubs' Ernie Banks, with a two-run homer and a sacrifice fly.

Johnny Temple drove in four runs, with a double and sacrifice fly, for the Reds, who had 17 hits — five by Gus Bell. Rookie Jim O'Toole (2-2) won it, with Brooks Lawrence's save. Wilmer Mizell (10-4) was the loser.

DRYSDALE IS

WINNER AGAIN;

BEATS PIRATES

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

A suddenly settled pitching staff has made a National League contender out of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The mainstay of the crew is Don Drysdale—the guy who got 'em started, the guy who's done the job as a starter or in relief, and the guy who's been their stopper.

The Dodgers began their run a month ago, when they were in fifth place. They've won 19 of 29 since and it all began with Drysdale's four-hit shutout over their first-place Milwaukee.

Beat Pittsburgh

The cross-firing right-hander has lost only one since—that controversial one-hitter by San Francisco's Sam Jones.

Drysdale won his sixth in the Dodger surge Wednesday night, stopping their skid at three games with a three-hitter that beat Pittsburgh 3-0 and jumped Los Angeles back into second place.

The Dodgers again are within one game of the first-place Giants, idled by rain, and have a .002 percentage point edge over the Braves, who slipped to third with a 5-2 defeat by the Chicago Cubs.

Cincinnati rapped St. Louis 11-5 in the other NL game.

Rain Interferes

Rain postponed all but one game in the American League. Washington won it, 3-0 over Detroit.

Sophomore Glen Hobbie (10-7) pushed his career record to 5-0 over the Braves with a five-hitter. He also singled home the run that clinched it when the Cubs scored twice in the fourth against

MAITLAND IN TOP TWENTY JAYCEE GOLF

Greg Maitland, young golfing sensation at the Gettysburg Country Club and runner-up in the Gettysburg Jaycee Golf Tourney, breezed around the final 18 holes of the Hershey Country Club with an 80 to qualify for the final nine holes to determine the state champion. On the last nine holes Maitland shot a 42, five strokes behind the state winner, Harry Toscano.

Maitland said his most effective shots were his irons, but he was a little weak with his woods, he added. He finished the tournament with an 82-80-42-204.

Sam Hartley, who got off to a flying start on Tuesday by firing a blistering 79, ran into trouble in Wednesday's first 18 holes by recording a 90. He did not qualify to play the last nine holes. Hartley's totals were 75-90-169.

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Harry Toscano, 17, New Castle golfer, won first place Wednesday in the annual tournament of the State Junior Chamber of Commerce played at the Hershey Park course.

The Yankees belted out a 12-7 win over the first half champion Pirates Wednesday evening in the Upper Adams Little League to move into a tie for second place in the league standings. The second game to be played between the Red Sox and Braves was postponed and will be played this evening at Biglerville. Both games are make-ups from the first half of play.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Pudgy Billy Casper will need all his putting skill when he tangles with the Oakridge Country Club golf course near here during the 72-hole $7,500 Utah Open this weekend.

16 REACH 3RD ROUND PUBLIC LINKS TOURNEY

DENVER (AP) — Defending champion Dan Sikes Jr. of Jacksonville, Fla., and 15 other hopefuls faced third round foes today in the National Public Links golf tournament.

Sikes' opponent was Leonard Pietras of Toledo, Ohio.

Don Essig III of Indianapolis, the 1957 champion, tangled with Randy Petri of Austin, Tex.

Other third round tests over the 5,617-yard, par 71 Weishire Municipal course sent William McCool of San Francisco against Hugh Farmer of Toledo; Jack Zimmerman of Dayton, Ohio, against Gene Towry of Dallas; Cliff Brown of Cleveland against Frank Campbell of Jacksonville, Fla.; Bill Tindall of Seattle against Don Kristofitz of Fargo, N.D.; William Wright of Seattle against Wallace Smith of Pontiac, Mich., and Raymond Massey of Miami, Fla., against Gene Dahlbender of Atlanta, Ga.

Survivors of the morning round squared off in the afternoon quarterfinals.

Sikes squeezed by two opponents Wednesday. The 23-year-old University of Florida law student edged Al Benefield of Denver 1 up and Marshall Strauss of Highland, Ill., 2 and 1.

Pietras, after downing Akira Hashimoto of Honolulu 4 and 3, had to go 24 holes before nipping Larry Lee of Spokane, Wash., 1 up.

Essig disposed of Steve Swain of Los Angeles on the 20th hole 1 up and trimmed Conrad Guenther of Minneapolis 2 up. Petri whipped Harold Kotwitz of Janesville, Wis., 6 and 5 and Jack Omuro of Honolulu 2 and 1.

Wednesdays big casualties were Mat Palacio Jr. of San Rafael, Calif., Rich Casabella of Louisville, Ky., and Dr. Donald Keith of San Diego, Calif. All posted 36-hole qualifying totals of 138 — a single stroke behind medalist Sikes.

Palacio lost to Wright 5 and 4. Casabella bowed on the 19th hole to Bob Denton of Peoria, Ill., after defeating Richard Hopwood of Phoenix, Ariz., 1 up. Dr. Keith was eliminated by Campbell by a similar score.

The field will be out to beat Casper, the National Open champ from Chula Vista, Calif., and Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif., runner-up to Casper in the National Open.

LITTLESTOWN LITTLE LEAGUE

The last place Cardinals of the Littlestown Little League came to life Wednesday by edging the Pirates 3-2 in a thrilling encounter. George Peart, Cardinal hurler, was the man who turned the tide as he turned in a fine pitching performance. Terry Reynolds, doing an equally fine job for the Pirates, is charged with the loss.

Gettysburg Little League

An early bombardment of hits and runs allowed the Lions to score an easy 14-3 win over the Moose in the Gettysburg Little League Wednesday evening on the Recreation Field. The Lions continue to remain a half game behind the league leading Bream's in the close title race.

A triple by Bill Eden in the first frame highlighted a three-run attack and put the Lions out in front 3-0. Manager Fred Baker's second-place team then scored five in the second, two in the third and finished with four tallies in the top of the fourth.

Pete Nelson belted a two-run homer to left-center in the third frame. Eddie Tilberg lashed a double to right in the fourth for the last extra base hit.

The Moose tallied all three of their runs in the bottom of the sixth inning. Rick Fissel and Ron Plank drew walks to lead off the frame. Larry Shindelecker, Moose sensational rookie, then blasted a triple to right for the home team's only hit. Shindelecker then crossed the plate on an infield miscue.

Bill Eden was quite effective Wednesday as he struck out 15 batters, walked five and allowed only one hit. Tom Sneeringer started on the mound for the Moose but was relieved by Larry Shindelecker in the fifth.

Bill Eden and Pete Nelson paced the winners attack with three and two hits respectively.

CHARITY MEET REGARDED AS EVEN MATCH

The USSR-USA track meet figures to go either way when these two teams meet in an international match at Franklin Field this Saturday and Sunday.

A year ago at Moscow in the men's competition the United States forces scored a solid 126-109 triumph although Uncle Sam's forces lost one point when Gordon McKenzie was disqualified in the 10,000 meter race.

How close can the meet be this weekend? It figures out that the USA should wind up with 120 and the much improved USSR squad can total 116 points in the meet sponsored by the Philadelphia Inquirer Charities, Inc., and the AAU.

Coach Frank Potts of the United States is counting heavily on his six Olympic champions to land first places. Included in this group are hurdler Lee Calhoun, shot-putter Parry O'Brien, discus thrower Al Oerter, broad jumper Gregory Bell, high jumper Charley Dumas, and hammer thrower Hal Connolly.

22 Events

The scoring in the international match will be on the basis of 5-3-2-1 for the four places while the winner of the 400- and 1600-meter relays will receive five points each.

Each team is restricted to two entries in each event. A total of 22 events have been carded, including the decathlon where Vasily Kuznetsov, USSR world record-holder, appears to enjoy a wide edge over his USA adversaries Dave Edstrom and Mike Herman.

Among the Olympic champions representing Uncle Sam, at least two are in danger of tasting defeat. Charley Dumas will have his hands full with Igor Kashkarov who has been jumping close to seven feet in the recent meets. Kashkarov defeated Dumas at Moscow last year.

The other Olympic king facing the stiffest of competition is Gregory Bell who came out of semi-retirement to earn a place on the team. He will come to grips with European champion Igor Ter-Ovanesyan, a steady 26-foot plus leaper.

Counts On Southern

There seem little likelihood that American prestige will suffer in the short races. Ray Norton looks like a certainty in the two sprints, Eddie Southern is counted on for five points in the 400-meter dash, Tom Murphy should be the class in the 800 meters while either Lyrol Burleson or Jim Grelle can dominate the 150-meter class.

The United States should prevail in both relay races while Lee Calhoun and Hayes Jones are the class of the hurdlers and newcomer Dick Howard has the ability to knock over Alexei Klein in the 400-meter timbertopping event.

Pyotr Bolitnikov and Hubert Prynaki figure to win the 5,000 and 10,000 meter runs and the Russians can count for a certainty a 1-2 finish in the steeplechase with Simonyon Rzhishchin and Sergei Ponomarev, a couple of veterans, over the obstacle course.

The invaders should also finish 1-2 in the 20-kilometer walk with Vladimir Golubnichy and Anatoly Vedyakov crushing Rudolph Haluza and Fred Timcoe.

Running Events

Although the Americans should prevail in the running events nine to four, the USSR team looks much stronger in the field events and can walk off with top honors in five of the eight, plus the decathlon all-around event.

Connolly, Oerter and O'Brien, the Olympic champions, appear to be the only Americans capable of winning the field events.

Vladimir Bulatov is favored over Bragg in the pole vault, Kashkarov has a definite edge over high jumper Charley Dumas and Al Cantello appears over his head throwing against the experienced Vladimir Kuznetsov.

In the other events Oleg Fedoseyev is the class in the hop, step and jump with Ter-Ovanesyan the favorite in the broad jump over Bell. Overall the Russians appear to have a 51-48 edge over the USA in the eight field events and decathlon.

Another indication of the closeness of the meet is shown in predicted first places: 12 for the USA and 10 for the Russians. Uncle Sam's men athletes last year captured 14 first places to eight for the Russians.

Frank Potts, American coach, repeatedly has said this squad is as strong as the one we sent to Russia a year ago.

However, the team that the USSR brought over here to meet the Americans is peopled with much better competitors and those with a year's more experience, than the team we defeated in Moscow.

Upper Adams Pony League

A league meeting of the Upper Adams Pony and Little League managers was held Wednesday evening in the Upper Adams district with Wilson D. Wenk, supervisor, presiding.

It was decided to play off the game between the Orioles and Red Legs, for the first half title, on the Arendtsville diamond, Saturday, July 25, at 5 p.m. Both teams are tied for first place with 8-2 records. It was also noted at Wednesday's meeting that because of a wrong box score the Dodgers defeated the Senators 2-1 last Monday night in the opening contest of the second half. It was the first win for the New Oxford Dodgers this season. The win puts them in a three-way tie for first place. The wrong score indicated that the Senators had won.

Arrangements for the annual trip to Baltimore to see the Orioles game were planned Wednesday but no date has been set. It was decided to give the winning teams small baseball pins rather than a trophy. The pins will contain a baseball and bat emblem.

League officials also requested that the umpires try to get the games underway a little earlier so they won't run so late.

Emmitsburg Little League

A single by Ronnie Sweeney in the top of the sixth inning gave the Red Sox a close 7-5 win over the league leading Giants, Wednesday evening in the Emmitsburg Little League.

With the score tied 5-5 at the end of five innings, Sweeney came through in the sixth with his blast to right, driving in the two winning runs. Earlier in the game Carson Kelly, heavy hitting Red Sox player, belted a home run with no one on base.

The Red Sox's win tightens the league and the outcome could turn into a thrilling race among the first three teams.

KILLS WOMAN THEN SUICIDES

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A church custodian, apparently attached to the 4-year-old son of an attractive boarder, barged into the woman's new home Wednesday night and killed her. Then he wounded her employer, with whom she lived, and killed himself.

Joe Christy, 59, custodian at Christ the King Catholic Church, fired five shots from a .38-caliber .45 after pushing his way into the home of Howard Killian, 35, an attorney, Police Capt. Horace Locke said.

The first two shots killed Mrs. Patricia Somnitz, 26. The third hit Killian in the right elbow. After firing once toward the kitchen where Mrs. Killian stood, Christy shot himself in the head, Locke said.

Locke said Mrs. Somnitz and her son Joey had lived with Christy and his wife for three years until moving three weeks ago into the home of Killian, to whom she was secretary.

Mrs. Christy was quoted as saying when her husband left their house he told her he was going to get Joey back "one way or the other."

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A 65-year-old Washington County steelworker died today in St. Clair Memorial Hospital of injuries suffered June 8.

Prized Copy Of Gettysburg Address Acquired By U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Government is the new owner of the last of five 1864 copies of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

It is part of the estate of the late Oscar B. Cintas, former Cuban ambassador to the United States. He bought it 10 years ago for $54,000.

His estate is in litigation, but the parties to the dispute agreed the manuscript should go to the Government.

State May Help On School Costs

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House Wednesday passed 196-0 and sent to the Senate legislation that would give schools affected by the state's drive on fire hazards priority in school construction aid.

The administration-backed measure provides that money given the schools would not be counted against the state's ceiling for school building aid. The House Appropriations Committee is studying a separate proposal that would appropriate $800,000 to finance work of eliminating fire hazards in school buildings.

The Labor and Industry Department has closed hundreds of school buildings in whole or in part since last December's school fire tragedy at Chicago.

The House also approved and sent to the Senate a bill that would make third class school districts which become second class by reason of a merger or union still eligible for school transportation subsidies (188-7).

Donald Green, assistant U. S. attorney in New York City, accepted the document yesterday from an officer of the bank that is executing the Cintas estate. It is destined for the Lincoln Room of the White House.

The manuscript was drawn up at the request of George Bancroft, a noted historian of the time, for a charity fair for servicemen and their families in Baltimore in 1864.

The Library of Congress has two of the other copies. A third belongs to the Illinois State Historical Library. The fourth is privately owned.

Highway Detours To Save Historic Pine

CHICAGO (AP)—An expressway will make an extra curve to spare a pine, the last survivor of 60 trees planted in 1880 to mark the Indian boundary lines which Lake Michigan.

The surviving tree, south of Chicago, was in the path of a projected leg of a metropolitan expressway. Before bulldozers approached, amateur historians and garden club members persuaded the highway planners to curve the road and save the tree.

The two lines of trees once showed boundaries of a 20-mile wide strip which was ceded to tribes.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The "I spoiled Bob Gontkosky's No Hitter Club" is growing. Gontkosky (9-5) pitched his third one-hitter this year in the Eastern League Wednesday night as Williamsport blanketed Springfield 2-0 in the nightcap of a doubleheader after dropping the opener 7-2.

Gontkosky faced only 27 batters. He set down the first 18 men in order. Then Matty Alou, the newest member of the elite club, led off the Springfield seventh with an infield hit. But Ray Alomar hit into a double play.

It was a tough loss, too, for Juan Marichal (10-11) who gave up only three hits and struck out 10. Williamsport won the game on Tony Curry's two-run homer that followed Bob Wine's single in the third.

In the opener Springfield sent five runs across in the sixth to back the three-hit pitching of Jim Myers (10-7). Alomar and Frank Reveira belted solo home runs off loser Bob Milo (5-6), who gave up 11 hits before departing in the sixth.

Allentown defeated York 7-2 to move to within three games of the league-leading Grays; Binghamton beat Albany 7-4 and Lancaster trounced Reading 20-11.

Al Antinelli racked up his 13th win of the year as Allentown made it three straight over York. Antinelli, who has lost only three games, gave up nine hits but kept them well spaced. Dan Lynk and Gerry Mallett each collected two hits and batted in two runs to spark Allentown's attack. Jack Hamilton (5-7) was charged with the loss.

Lancaster pounded out 24 hits off three Reading pitchers, including five home runs, three triples and two doubles, and scored in every inning except the eighth. Johnny Kreuter was the Red Sox batting star with two homers, a double and two singles in five trips, as he knocked in four runs. Reading cracked out 20 hits off Lancaster pitching. Fred Burdette (7-6), who came on in the fourth, was the winner. Ray Konkoleski (1-2) was the loser.

Springfield at Williamsport
York at Allentown
Reading at Lancaster.

Fairfield
Little League

The two last place teams in the Fairfield Little League put on a fine exhibition of clutch hitting and excellent base running as the Braves and Giants played to 15-15 tie, called after six innings because of darkness, Wednesday evening. The game is scheduled to be played from the beginning on Friday evening.

Bob Sanders and Mike Rine-doll faced each other on the mound. Gary Spence collected four hits for the Giants while the Braves were led by Mike Wyatt and Pat Sites.

Lenny Moore Signs
His 4th Contract

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lenny Moore signed up today for his fourth season of running and catching passes for the Baltimore Colts in the National Football League.

The right halfback was a tremendous offense part of the Colts' march to the championship last season. He scored 14 touchdowns to bring his pro total to 35 since leaving Penn State.

The No. 1 draft choice of the Colts in 1956, Moore poses a double defensive problem for opponents because of his pass catching ability. In three years, he has run 1,735 yards with the ball from scrimmage and caught it for gains of only eight yards less.

51, 3-Man Ties
In Tournament

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Fifty-one three-man teams prepared to tee off today in the $1,500 pro-am which precedes the $7,500 Utah Open golf tournament Friday at the Oakridge Country Club near here.

Two amateurs and one professional are on a team. The top professionals, such as National Open champ Billy Casper of Chula Vista, Calif., were not scheduled to tee off until the afternoon.

Other top players entered in the event include the runnerup in the National Open, Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif., Ed (Porky) Oliver of Denver, Billy Johnston of Provo, Utah, and Don Collett, Casper's neighbor in Chula Vista. The final round for the $1,500 first prize will be played Monday.

News Briefs

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP) — Stephen Heyen, 2, rode three miles on the outside of a pickup truck Wednesday before he lost his grip.

Stephen was playing outside his parents' store and climbed on the side of the parked truck. The driver came out and drove away, unaware of his passenger.

Stephen held on as long as he could and then dropped off. Hospital attendants said he appeared to have suffered only scratches and fright.

MARCELLUS, N.Y. (AP) — A three-mile railroad, one of the nation's smallest, is going out of business. The Marcellus & Otisco Lake Railroad operated for 59 years serving a local barley mill. The mill shut recently.

NEW YORK (AP) — Spain will get a 400-million-dollar revitalization in the next few days, it was reported today.

The New York Times said the money will be used to enable Spain "to break out of her post-World War II isolation and enter into the mainstream of world economic life."

A Washington dispatch to the Times noted that "the Spanish government has nearly exhausted its hard currency and gold reserves."

The story said the government will be set on a new economic course by credits from international, European, United States government and private banking institutions headed by the International Monetary Fund and the Organization for European Economic Cooperation.

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Don Henry's cat Scat has given birth to a kitten with two noses, about an inch apart, two mouths and four eyes side by side. "Both heads are meowing," Henry said.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—William F. Flick, 19, of nearby Aspinwall was fatally injured late Wednesday night when his auto snagged onto the rear of a Pennsylvania Railroad train and was dragged some 150 feet.

Police said Flick, alone in the auto, was attempting to cross the railroad tracks at a crossing in Oakmont, when his car caught on to the rear of the locomotive. He died at Pittsburgh Hospital several hours after the accident.

"LOGJAM" ON CIVIL RIGHTS MAY BREAK UP

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—A first, short step toward getting a civil rights bill before the Senate brought expressions today of guarded, but contrary, hopes from opposing sides.

Southern opponents emphasized they would continue their fight to block a bill before the Senate Judiciary subcommittee Wednesday by a 4-3 vote.

"It could be amended into something more drastic," cautioned Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC).

Signs Of Break
Advocates of a stronger bill saw in the subcommittee's action a possibility that the logjam may be breaking.

Sen. John A. Carroll (D-Colo.) called the bill only a skeleton, but said some meat may be put on it when it goes before the full Judiciary Committee. Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-NJ.) said he hoped the Senate would go "a great deal further."

The bill approved by the subcommittee has only two sections.

Fight Shifted
One would require state and local officials to keep voter registration records for three years, and ballots for 18 months, and to make them available to the U.S. attorney general for inspection upon demand.

The other would extend from Sept. 9 of this year until Jan. 31, 1961, the life of the Civil Rights Commission—created two years ago primarily to investigate complaints of discriminatory denial of voting rights.

The subcommittee's action shifted the immediate battle arena to the full Judiciary Committee, presided over by Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.), a determined foe of civil rights legislation.

Fall Fashions Have Definite Man - Appeal

HUSBANDS PLEASE NOTE
Tailored but feminine is this suave city suit in brown wool with rope belt, longer jacket and luxurious collar of golden glow fox.

THIS WILL SLAY 'EM... It takes nerve to wear a slouch hat with a cocktail outfit. Tailored satin jacket with bead trim tops figure - revealing black sheath.

FUR-BEARING SWANK... Lush silver fox borders inverted pleat in full skirt of this dramatic dark gray wool dress with brief removable shoulder cape.

NONCHALANT LOOK... Coat dress in lustrous black taffeta wraps casually about the figure, is tied at the waist, bathrobe-fashion, with striped ribbon sash.

FOR THE BOYS... Long, slinky and definitely beguiling is this evening sheath in white satin with matching tailored jacket, reminiscent of the 1930's.

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

Husbands will be so happy about feminine fashions this fall that they may not even fuss about the prices.

New York designers have turned out fall collections calculated to make women look their best and to make men applaud. The clothes ready for next season are the kind that men like best—simple in cut, luxurious in fabric and made with the feminine figure in mind.

Necklines are at their most flattering—wide and oval in daytime, daringly plunging at night. Belts are where they belong—in the middle. Skirts are slender and just short enough for flattery.

Everything has a tailored look, whether it's a suit of men's-wear worsted or an evening dress of glittering gold brocade. And this is a gesture toward the men, too. For the U.S. male always has admired the feminine woman in clothes with a mannish look—witness the popularity of Marlene Dietrich and her ermine polo coat, Greta Garbo and her slouch hat.

Male Cheers

There hasn't been an evening fashion in years that will draw more cheers from the boys than the gold brocade trench coat and matching shirtwaist dress of this season. It's planned to give women the appealing look achieved by a girl in boys' pajamas.

Just as popular will be the long, slinky, backless evening gowns of beaded chiffon or lush satin, and the brocade theater suits with tailored jackets concealing plunging necklines.

REDS SEEKING SHOWPIECE IN EAST GERMANY

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—The Soviet Union's main political aim in Europe now is becoming clear. It is to set up East Germany as a showpiece Communist state and Moscow's strongest continental ally by 1961.

The Soviets seem determined to obtain by 1961 a settlement dividing Germany indefinitely or reuniting the country but neutralizing it. That apparently is the significance of Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's proposal that the situation in Berlin be frozen by 18 months while a committee of West and East Germans negotiate on reunification.

Auto Workers Due For Senate Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Rackets Committee plans to start a preliminary investigation of the United Auto Workers in hearings behind closed doors.

The three-day inquiry, starting July 27, is to determine whether evidence compiled by the committee's Republican members is sufficient to justify public hearings.

The investigation could set off a political row among the senators as a similar one did when the committee investigated the UAW in 1958.

Show Of Power

It is the considered Allied view that Soviet aid meanwhile will boost East German military and economic power in an effort to offset (1) any Allied moves to train and equip West German forces with nuclear weapons and (2) the attraction and power of the booming West German economy.

One big problem the Reds have been unable so far to solve is the possibility of an anti-Communist upheaval among the 17 million East Germans.

Allied diplomats have reached these conclusions after close study of Soviet strategy and plans at the foreign ministers' talks here and Soviet actions elsewhere.

CRIME GETS MORE COSTLY

Crime gets more expensive every day, according to the Adams County Commissioners who Wednesday received the semi-annual bill from the Allegheny County Workhouse.

The bill ordered paid at the meeting of the commissioners in the court house Wednesday was for $7,128.57 and represented the "keep" of 28 prisoners from Adams County incarcerated in the workhouse during the last six months. Cost for the prisoners was $2.25 per day each which the commissioners said is one of the lowest prices charged by a state penal institution, but also represents a gradual increase in the cost of maintaining prisoners. All of the institutions have raised "prices" regularly during the last several years, the commissioners said, in order to stay abreast of the increased cost of operation of the institutions.

First Victim Of Radiation Burns Has 92nd Operation

HOFFA PLANS 1960 ATTACK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—James R. Hoffa says the Teamsters Union will make free use of radio, television and the mails in the 1960 election campaign "to let the American working man know just where all the politicians stand."

Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, said on a Miami visit that city directories throughout the country would be combed to compile a mailing list of 10 million persons.

"The rest of the people we'll reach by television and radio," he said.

Hoffa pledged Teamsters support of the steel strike, addressed the International Longshoremen's Assn. on the need for labor solidarity, and spurred Teamster efforts to organize Greater Miami workers on his flying visit from Washington Wednesday.

He said his men "won't go through any of their (steel strike) picket lines."

was president of the board of the American School for the Deaf at West Hartford for 42 years, retiring in 1955.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—George K. Nichols, 79, former vice president and manager of Matson Navigation Co.'s construction and repair department, died Tuesday after a brief illness. He was born at Bath, Maine.

NEW YORK (AP)—Raymond T. Rich, 60, director of Raymond Rich Associates, counselors to nonprofit organizations, and director of American Foundations Information Service, died Wednesday. He also had served as special consultant to many organizations in the health, welfare and professional medical and educational fields. He was born in Hyde Park, Mass.

CHICAGO (AP)—He lies there, a wreck of a man after 64 years of pain and 91 operations, one of the first victims of radiation.

He speaks from only half a mouth, and his words were sometimes bitter. The operations also have claimed his left hand, most of his nose, his upper lips and parts of his cheek and jaw.

He asks, "Why should I, an innocent individual, have to suffer like this? For 64 years I have known pain."

The white-haired man is Dr. Emil H. Grubbe, 84, credited by medical science with being the first to apply radiation in an attempt to cure cancer.

Friday, he is scheduled to undergo his 92nd operation for radiation burns and cancer resulting from some of his experiments. Doctors say they probably will have to remove two fingers from his right hand.

Dr. Grubbe gave a rare news conference Wednesday in Swedish Covenant Hospital.

Didn't Know Of Danger
"I was the first one burned by radiation," he said. He told of how in 1895, as a physicist, he worked on the manufacture of plutonium vacuum tubes called Crookes tubes, used to rarify gases.

Many times he touched the tubes or brought them near his face, not knowing of the danger. An irritation appeared on his hand, but he didn't know what it was.

Then on Nov. 8, 1895, the discovery of X-rays was announced by Wilhelm Roentgen.

"I knew then I had been burned by X-rays," Dr. Grubbe said. "They were produced in the Crookes tubes. From that day on I protected myself from the rays. But it was too late."

Six months later he had his first operation for radiation burns.

In the meantime, Dr. Grubbe, on Jan. 26, 1896, began treating a woman afflicted with breast cancer by exposing her to X-rays. The pain left her shortly. Since then he has instructed more than 7,000 doctors in radiology techniques.

CATCH BURGLAR ACTOR, WRITER, PHOTOGRAPHER

LOS ANGELES (AP)—At 24 a success, by some standards, he wanted to start over—to turn the page and become an entirely new person.

That's why he worked so hard at his adopted trade—burglary—says Gordon Ellis Atteberry.

He was good at it. He says he carried off more than 200 burglaries, which netted him $100,000 or more. He kept three luxurious apartments at once. He eluded officers in almost 48 states, Canada and Mexico.

When caught, he was dropping his last nickel in a Reno, Nev., parking meter.

All through his months of exciting flight from one police trap to another, the keen-minded law-breaker kept trying to figure himself out.

Hypnotist, Actor
"I want to see what makes me tick," he said Wednesday on returning to Los Angeles.

Atteberry worked successfully as a professional hypnotist, actor, writer and photographer of nudes. He studied engineering at the University of Colorado and Wisconsin. He's described as an expert at electronics.

Still there was something lacking in his life.

"I planned to reduce my age by five years, assume a new identity and eventually enter the University of Florida as a premedical student majoring in psychology," he says.

So he became burglar.
Police found $100,000 worth of loot in his apartments last March. They got onto him after a husband complained Atteberry was stealing his wife.

He was ordered held for preliminary hearing in lieu of $105,000 bail. He professed to be glad he'd been caught.

Fifth Atlas Fails To Leave Ground

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A powerful engine of an Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile ignited early today but the trouble-plagued rocket failed to get off the ground.

The Atlas remained locked on its pad engulfed in billows of black smoke. When the countdown reached zero a flash of orange flame burst from the base of the 85-foot missile. It died quickly.

The last five Atlases were failures: four of them exploded shortly after launching.

PLAN HOME RULE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to give the District of Columbia its first real home rule since 1874 was passed by the Senate Wednesday and sent to the House.

The bill would allow district residents to elect their own mayor and city council and one nonvoting delegate to the House of Representatives. The capital city now is governed by Congress and a commission appointed by the President.

the career of John Foster Dulles. It was distributed to Associated Press members after the secretary of state's death on May 24. Creagh was born in Nicholson, Pa.

He is survived by his widow, the former Nelda Elizabeth Randall of Olean, N.Y., and two children, David, 7, and Elizabeth, 4.

Creagh was well known in Gettysburg. He frequently accompanied President Eisenhower here with the White House press correspondents and he made many friends in Gettysburg. He also spent a number of weekends here when off duty.

MAKES LIVING AS WATERBOY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ben Larsen runs a delivery service supplying ocean-going ships with water — drinking water.

He's one of the few men anywhere engaged in this type of business.

Larsen owns a squat, 42-foot waterboat, the Priscilla. Sometimes the vessel is busy on the Delaware River for 36 hours continuously. Sometimes it may lie idle for two or three weeks.

Larsen's service supplements regular Philadelphia port facilities for supplying drinking water to ships.

Larsen Called

When a ship docks at a pier where there are no such facilities or where the water pressure is too low to do the job, Larsen gets a call. Moments later he heads the Priscilla across river to a pier at Camden, N. J., where it takes on a capacity 40-ton water load from an artesian well line.

Some ships take as much as 150 tons through the waterboat's high pressure hoses, meaning four round-trips for the Priscilla. One complete operation takes up to four hours. Thus, supplying a big ship may keep the Priscilla busy for 16 hours.

Larsen charges $2 a ton for his water (a ton is about 250 gallons) and says it's a reasonable price. If a big ship were to take the cross-river trip for loading its own supply at Camden, he notes it might mean a bill of about $600 for pilot and tug costs.

The traditional flag ceremony which officially closes each day's final activity at the Girl Scouts' Camp Happy Valley is attended by the entire camp, campers and camp staff. The girls and their leaders march in a circular path around the flagpole and a color guard lowers the flag. The emblem is then folded in strict military fashion and presented to the leader of the color guard, after which the group sings "Taps." The bearers then march to the lodge where the flag is kept until it is raised the next morning.

This week's camp, the fourth and last of the season, was attended by 145 members of the oldest intermediate group B from Gettysburg, Littlestown and Bonneville. The camp closes Friday afternoon with a program to which parents have been invited.

Aspen Lodge, main headquarters of the camp, was given its name because of the stand of aspen trees on the camp site. (Times Photo)

House Fails To Act On Compromise 4 Pct. Sales Tax; Stalemate Continues

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG (AP)—A long-standing legislative stalemate on taxes continued today after House failure to act on a compromise 4 per cent sales tax plan.

Rep. Stephen McCann, House Democratic floor leader, and his Republican opposite number, Rep. Albert W. Johnson, were uncertain what the next move will be to enact a tax program for 1959-1961.

The two principal architects of the $143,300,000 sales tax program said, angrily and disappointedly, they had nothing in mind on any new effort to round up enough votes to pass the program in the House. There was a bitter failure Wednesday night.

Within One Ballot
Apparently within a single ballot of the necessary 106 pledges of support, the sales tax compromise dramatically failed to reach a floor vote after:

Fifteen lawmakers in Philadelphia's 35-member Democratic delegation withheld their support. The party leadership had presumed they would fall into line as they always had no Democratic leadership policy measures.

Republicans quickly withdrew an earlier pledge to supply the 15 votes which McCann had said were all that were required from the GOP side to pass the bill.

The measure, still in position for a final vote, would increase the 3½ per cent sales tax to 4 per cent and extend the levy to soft drinks, beer, liquor, laundry and dry cleaning services.

Other legislative developments: Recess — Both the House and Senate recessed until next Monday.

Housing — The House Law and Order Committee, reversing its decision of Tuesday, approved legislation to prohibit discrimination in the sale of housing. The administration-backed measure would make it a crime to discriminate in housing sales because of race, color or creed. An amendment excluded sales of single dwellings.

Pensions — The Senate approved and sent to the governor a House-passed bill to pay pensions to widows of firemen, policemen or employees of third class cities.

Taxes — The usual decorum of the recessed House was transformed into a scene of shouting confusion when news of the Philadelphia defections reached the Republicans.

They crowded to Johnson's desk urging him to pull out of the compromise. He made his decision quickly. Turning to newsmen near-

Stamp News

By SYD KRONISH
The Associated Press

The theme for the United States 4-cent soil conservation stamp to be issued Aug. 26 will be "the importance of contour plowing," says Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

The new stamp, which salutes progress in soil conservation in the United States, was developed in cooperation with the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. Formal issuance will be at the annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America at Rapid City, S. D.

The stamp is a tribute to farmers and ranchers who have put to use such soil and water conservation measures as those shown in the stamp design — terracing, strip-cropping, pasture improvement, pond construction and tree planting.

First Cancellations

Collectors desiring first day cancellations of the stamp may send their addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed, to the Postmaster, Rapid City, S. D., prior to Aug. 26. The outside envelope to the postmaster should be endorsed "First Day Covers Soil Conservation Stamp."

Denmark has issued a new semi-postal stamp to mark the centenary of the Battle of Solferino which gave the Swiss Henri Dunant the idea of founding the International Red Cross. The stamp comes in two denominations, 30-ore plus 5 red and 60-ore plus 5 blue. The additional values go to the Red Cross. Depicted on the stamp is a world globe surrounded by Red Cross emblems.

A choice collection of unused United States stamps was sold for $51,686 in New York by Harmer, Rooke & Co. The catalogue value was approximately $42,000. Top price of $6,000 in the collection was paid for a block of four of the 1869, 90-cent Lincoln head, which catalogues for $2,500.

Postage stamps for the new country of Ghana have been on the market for only a short time but have created much comment with their beautiful design. Subjects covered so far are landscape, birds, flowers, fish, products, religious symbols and a statue of Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah.

GOWNS FOR 1959 BRIDES ARE COLORFUL

By DOROTHY ROE

Here comes the bride of 1959. She is younger than the brides of a few years ago, and better informed about fashion.

If she is today's average American bride she is 18 years old, marrying a young man of 19 or stamp to honor the inauguration of Argentine Airline flights. The green and black airmail adhesive shows a plane flying over a map of Argentina. Also issued by Argentina was a new stamp honoring the first Grand International Horticultural Exhibition.

Nicaragua reports that it soon will issue a set of 12 new stamps to honor Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York. There will be five regular postage and seven airmails in the set. The design will be the same for each stamp — a portrait of the Cardinal, his coat of arms, signature, and the flags of the United States and Nicaragua.

20. Both bride and groom may still be in college, and planning to get their diplomas before starting a permanent home. Their parents probably will still foot the bills.

Hard Work

There are years of scrimping and hard work ahead of her, but on one thing she's firm — she wants a formal wedding with all the trimmings. The bridegroom may vote for a quick ceremony before a justice of the peace, but the bride intends to have her big day.

Her gown may be organdy, batiste, tulle or taffeta, but more than likely it will be white, strictly formal, full-length, with chapel or cathedral train, and she will wear a veil.

She'll choose her bridesmaids' dresses in pastel tints — either all one color or all different — to complement her own romantic gown. Bridesmaids dresses may be full-length also or waist-length, but will be chosen to do duty through the summer as dance dresses.

Simple Gown

The teen-age bride should choose a simple wedding gown, cut on classic lines. Most popular style has a fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline, and full skirt, complete with crinolines and train. If the gown has short sleeves, the bride should wear long white gloves, reaching above the elbow.

She may carry a bridal bouquet or merely a white satin prayer book — perhaps with a small corsage pinned to it. Her veil may be of ancestral lace, but with a modern wedding gown she probably will prefer a short circular veil of tulle, attached to a small diadem headdress.

TO SELL LINKS

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Jacksonville's two municipal golf courses — closed since April 7 when they were ordered integrated — will be sold to the highest bidder, City Commissioner Dallas L. Thomas said Wednesday. The buyers will be required to operate them as golf courses for at least 10 years.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — There's hardly a dry spot in town. Almost 8 inches of rain have fallen since Tuesday, leaving this resort city on the water almost covered by it.

The record rainfall has left water shin deep in the streets.

Canning Provides Variety Of Good Foods; Vacation Clothing Choice Important

By MRS. HELEN TUNISON
Associate Home Economist

Success in canning is not difficult. Follow the rules of home canning closely. The home canning rules have been adopted after much technical research and testing in homes. "I canned it and it kept," is no longer good enough for your family. To be good enough, the canned food must have a maximum amount of its minerals, vitamins, color and flavor and be free of harmful bacteria.

MRS. TUNISON

Canning does save money, especially if home-grown produce is preserved for future use. A survey by the U.S.D.A. showed that 82.8 per cent of the farm homemakers under 30 years of age are canning, and 55.9 per cent of the rural non-farm homemakers. In each age group surveyed home canning is done. In the 60 years of age and over, 90.8 per cent of the farm homemakers were canning and 67.5 per cent of the rural non-farm homemakers.

A varied well balanced diet through food preservation is important to older people on a reduced or retirement income to maintain good health and vitality.

Common Faults
The two most common complaints about home canning are failure to seal properly and food spoilage.

In some cases sealing failures are caused by use of old jars with slight cracks, dips, or checks; or jars in which commercial food is sold. The jars from commercial food are made with a lined lid designed for machine sealing and not with home canning caps.

A low vacuum in the jar may cause the two piece caps not to seal. The low vacuum is caused by several things. One problem is not keeping everything boiling hot and working quickly when using open kettle canning; another is leaving too much head space; a third thing is failure to "knif out" with a table knife the air bubbles; fourth, not enough heat during processing to force out the air, and fifth, failure to exhaust (vent) of pressure canner for full ten minutes and letting the heat fluctuate.

Canning bulletin 473, "Canning Fruits and Vegetables," will give additional information.

Vacation Garments.
A carefree vacation begins with a well-planned wardrobe. This means clothes that are co-ordinated in color and fabric so they can be mixed and matched for a variety of occasions and for changes in weather.

Vacation garments should be wrinkle shedding and packable without being bulky. Cotton knits, seersuckers, lace, jerseys, and fabrics with nubby texture usually pack with few wrinkles. Many garments made of resin-treated cottons, man-made fibers, and blends require little or no ironing.

When packing, group like articles such as jewelry, lingerie and gloves together. Stuff stockings in gloves to prevent runs and snags. Place shoes, cosmetics and heavy articles in the bottom of the suitcase. Place light clothing near the top. Put tissue paper in the folds of dresses and suits to help prevent wrinkles. Pack sleepwear last.

After arriving at the destination hang up garments at once. Brush clothes after wearing and wash soiled hose and other washables daily. When necessary steam wrinkles out of wool garments.

Encourage Co-operation
Picnics, vacation trips and other summer activities are good times to encourage family co-operation. They require careful planning of details and like many family projects are more fun

BAKING TIPS TO MAKE CAKE BAKING EASY

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
The Associated Press

If a kitchen godmother would grant you one wish, and you do not have a heat-control range, you might consider asking for this comforting piece of equipment.

Pay special attention to our advice if you have a worry-bird's temperament. Some cooks may be able to bake popovers and angel food cakes in a range minus heat control without damaging their psyches. But after two experiences with such outmoded equipment—one stint in a small city apartment, and one in a summer country house—we know that disposition can be detrimentally affected by an old-fashioned stove's whims! There's a wonderful feeling of security in putting a soufflé in a heat-control oven, turning on a timer and at its ring finding your creation high, puffy and perfectly baked.

Refrigerator
Any range needs care. It's always startling to find women who wouldn't dream of neglecting their refrigerators calmly letting when everyone helps with the preparations than when one person, usually mother, does all the work.

To prevent one person from having too much to do, each family member should carry some responsibility in line with his interests and abilities. If the family is going on a picnic a young child could get together the paper plates, cups and napkins. An older child could make a cake from a packaged mix. Teen-agers could shop, help prepare the food and load the car.

Have A Schedule
A schedule simplifies preparations. It helps define responsibilities, makes the allotment of jobs easy and serves as a check that everything is packed and ready to go. To make a schedule list the jobs to be done and persons to do them. Have each person check off his job as he completes it.

When planning summer activities keep in mind that mother enjoys them, too. But her enjoyment might be more complete if she doesn't have to take care of all the details herself. Have family members take part in the preparations.

Pastor With Past Uses Church As A Dormitory

LONDON (AP) — "I've had it rough myself. I know how hard it is to get back on your feet without a bed to sleep in or a bite in your belly."

And that, says Rev. B. E. Peake, is why his church in North Kensington is turned each night into a flophouse for ex-convicts.

Rev. Peake is pastor of the Free Congregational Church of Golborne Road. He is a rough-hewn character of 47 with a shock of black hair. He talks and looks as though he might have been something of a roughneck himself in his youth. He was.

per is on hand, you may leave the pans ungreased and line the bottoms with it.

Use cake pans with straight sides; they produce cakes with better volume and texture than those baked in pans with flaring sides.

The batter should be in fair proportion to the depth of the pan. If the pan is too big for the amount of batter, the cake will not rise or brown properly, and it will peak. If pan is too small for the amount of batter, the texture will be coarse, the crust may be crisp, and the batter will probably overflow before it sets.

blankets. The most I've ever had was 35 a couple of weeks ago. We were short of blankets. I tried the British War Office, the Soviet Embassy and finally the American Air Force.

"Those Yanks were over in a lorry with the blankets inside an hour. Brother, I want you to know we're all mighty grateful."

"Do your clients come to you only as a last resort?"

"No, brother, the word's got around. Most of them come straight out of the nick to me. You see, the church provides them with a chance for rehabilitation. It's an address they can give when applying for a job, and if I size a man up as truly repentant I will provide him with a personal reference."

3 Abused Hospitality
"Have any backsliders ever abused your hospitality?"

"Brother, only three out of about 400. One boy pried open the coin gas meter and made off with the shillings. Another stole a fellow inmate's piano accordion and the third copped the community electric razor. I think it's a pretty good record."

"Have you ever turned anybody away?"

"No, brother. Why, a few times I've even had guests when there was a coffin in the church with a body in it waiting for a funeral service."

"Are you able to give your

WEST POINT, Neb. (AP) — Fisherman I. E. Stratton always wanted to peek beneath the water to spy out weed beds, holes and ledges where fish might be hanging out. But he could never find anyone who could sell him a gadget that would do the job.

So he had an engineer draw plans for something he calls a Fishscope. With the scope, a large tube with glass in one end, you can peer as far as 30 feet into reasonably clear water, says Stratton.

He has applied for a patent and is in business as the West Point Fishscope Co. Stratton says he's had orders from as far as Reykjavik, Iceland, and Guaymas, Mexico.

WORST STEEL PINCH IS DUE IN 3 MONTHS

By WILLIAM FERRIS
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Most of American industry can get along for about one to three months without further deliveries of steel.

The big steel users—the automotive, construction and canning industries—are well stocked with supplies, an Associated Press roundup disclosed today.

Many firms anticipated the current steel strike. They built inventories far above normal, even going to Europe to get more steel.

Hits Railroads Fast
The strike had a quick impact on transportation, however. Railroads immediately furloughed workers and warned they'd lay off more if the strike continued. Rails were hit not only because they carry steel products, but also because they haul ore, coal and limestone to mills which make steel.

The Pennsylvania furloughed 6,200. The New York Central gave no figure but said there would be "a considerable force reduction." Erie laid off 250. Lehigh Valley eliminated yard switching crews at Bethlehem, Pa., furloughing 30.

60 Days For Car Plants
The Western roads, not immediately hurt by the strike, said they did not expect to feel its pinch until later—not until there is a drop in finished goods production.

Trucks, barge lines and steamboats also were among those to feel immediate setbacks. Automotive producers, which normally take 15 to 20 per cent of total steel production, estimated they could go 60 to 90 days without steel. That would bring them into the new model season.

Lattner Appointed Assistant Coach

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Johnny Lattner, former All-American halfback at Notre Dame, has been named as assistant football coach at Denver University.

The 26-year-old Lattner will assist Coach John Roning with the Pioneer backfield. He had been coach at St. Joseph's High in Kenosha, Wis.

Lattner played a year of professional football with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1954 before entering the Air Force. A knee injury suffered while playing service ball ended his career.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Abbottstown

ABBOTTSTOWN—For the first time in recent years, the Paradise picnic, an annual event for more than a half century, will be held on the grounds of Paradise Catholic Church August 1. Recently it was held at the Adams County Fairgrounds.

Because it is expected that a larger number of persons will be served dinner at the picnic this year, the Women's Council will begin serving at noon. Appeals have been made for parcel post packages for the picnic—it is planned to sell the packages, which contributors are asked to mail to the church, without opening.

A variety of carnival-type games will be featured. Among prizes to be offered will be quarters of a 1,000-pound steer and quarters of hogs from the prime stock of the farm at Paradise Agricultural School.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shultz and family and Mrs. Norman Miller are vacationing at Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Stambaugh spent the weekend in Jamestown, N. Y.

MANY STEEL FIRMS BUSY

CLEVELAND (AP)—There are many steel companies not affected by the current national steel strike. They fall into three categories: Those with no union, those with an independent union, and those with United Steelworkers contracts, which have not expired, or have been extended.

This list, compiled by "Steel" magazine, shows companies with an annual capacity of 21,459,790 tons—or about 14 per cent of the national total capacity of 147,633,670 tons.

Those in Pennsylvania: Alan Wood Steel Co., Ivy Rock; Armco Steel Corp., Butler; Babcock & Wilcox Co., Beaver Falls; Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton Corp., Burnham; Braeburn Alloy Steel Corp., Braeburn; A. M. Byers Co., Ambridge; Carpenter Steel Co., Reading; Edgewater Steel Co., Oakmont; Erie Forge & Steel Corp., Erie.

Harrisburg Steel Co., Harrisburg; Heppenstall Co., Pittsburgh and Philadelphia; Latrobe Steel Co., Latrobe; Meritt-Chapman & Scott Corp., Milton; Mesta Machine Co., New Castle and West Homestead; National Forge & Ordnance Co., Irvine; H. K. Porter Co., Inc., Aliquippa; Union Electric Steel Corp., Carnegie; Vanadium-Alloys Steel Co., Latrobe and Monaca; Jessop Steel Co., Washington, Pa.

Above is a progress photo of the new cold storage plant which is being added to the facilities of C. H. Musselman Co. plant at Biglerville.

The new building was designed by Buchart Associates, architects and engineers of York, for the handling of fancy-pack fruit. The structure will measure 110x125 feet and will have a 100,000-bushel capacity. A critical temperature of 29 to 31 degrees and a high relative humidity (in excess of 90 per cent) will be maintained at all times.

The new plant has been designed to permit complete palletized operations. Location of packing areas and automatic remote control doors will permit tractors and field trailers to be driven directly from the orchard into the storage areas. The space between the packing area and the cooling area will be roofed over to permit loading, unloading and shipping under cover. No columns will be used between the two areas, permitting complete traffic freedom.

24 FIRMS TO WAIT FOR STEEL
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Twenty-four refractory firms in 17 states and three unions have extended their labor contracts indefinitely pending settlement of steel industry contracts.

The announcement was made Wednesday by Robert J. Wagner, industrial relations manager for Harbison-Walker Refractories Co.

The refractory contracts expired June 30 but were extended to Tuesday midnight.

Wagner said talks on new contracts have been suspended until the steel industry and the striking United Steelworkers reach agreement on a new pact. He added, however, that some negotiations are continuing on a local level. The unions are the United Brick and Clay Workers, United Construction Workers and the United Stone and Allied Products Union.

The refractory firms, which make fire brick for steel mills, are located in Pennsylvania, Ohio, New Jersey, Maryland and 13 other states.

Radio Saves Time At Hialeah Track

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "All jockeys claim foul with pony boy Lucas Dupps at the three-quarter pole when you are pulling up after the race," says the sign in the jockeys' room at Hialeah. It's a time-saving idea. Dupps is equipped with a miniature two-way radio set. He can inform the stewards almost immediately after the race if there is an objection by any rider.

Nazarenes Are On Spring Baby Hunt

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Congregations of the Church of the Nazarene are conducting a spring "baby hunt." It's part of survey to expand the denomination's cradle roll in connection with a campaign to boost Sunday school enrollment by 300,000 in 1959 to a total of more than a million.

Makes Hole In Police Car No. 1

ENID, Okla. (AP) — Golfer Elder D. Skelly made a hole in one at the wrong time in the wrong place and the wrong way. While practicing his golf swing in the front yard, Skelly lost his grip on the club. It flew out of his hands and struck the only moving car in sight — police cruiser No. 1 — leaving a neat hole in the windshield.

Rugged Man Picked For Chaplains Job

PAMPA, Texas (AP) — When the Sheriff's Assn. of Texas decided to name a chaplain, they wanted a rugged man for the job, and picked the Rev. E. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist Church here. He's "a man's preacher from the first word," said Gray County Sheriff R. H. Jordan, president of the law enforcement group.

Bald eagles are so named because of the effect of the white feathers on their heads.

Many Vacations Are Taken To Missions

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Taking a trip to visit missionary outposts is getting to be a major vacation habit for members of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).

Since 1950, about 500 ordinary church-goers have gone on such denomination-sponsored tours to far-flung spots around the world, paying their own expenses.

Boyd Theater To Have Extra Shows

The management of the Boyd Theater, in Philadelphia, has announced a rescheduling of performance, for their current attraction "Cinemas Summer Sea Adventure" for the summer season, to accommodate the demands of housewives in particular, who have asked for special matinee showings in order that they may see the spectacular, together with their children, during more convenient times.

Special requests for these showings have also been received from out-of-town visitors, who would not be able to see Cinemas except through special matinee showings.

The theater has scheduled matinees on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays at 2 p.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays at 2:30 p.m. Regularly scheduled evening performances are Monday through Thursday at 8:30 p.m., on Friday and Saturday at 8:40 p.m. and on Sunday at 8 p.m.

PRODUCTION
SETS RECORD

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's industrial production boomed to a record high in June.

The Federal Reserve Board reported the total output from mines, mills and factories was 155 per cent of the 1947-49 average. This was 2 points above the revised figure for May.

The recession low was 126 in April 1958, the pre-recession high was 146 in February 1957.

Retail sales remained at a record high, 3 per cent higher in the second quarter of the year than in the first quarter and 10 per cent above a year earlier.

The board's monthly report said the output of autos, household durable goods and most types of business equipment continued to expand.

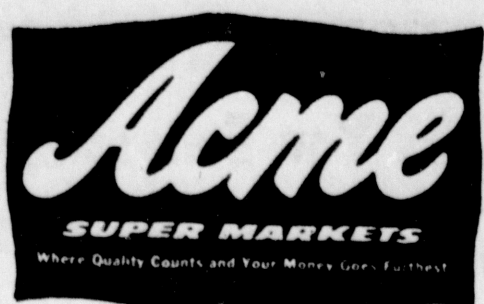

Steel production dropped to 90 per cent of capacity—3 points below the May rate—as operations were affected by the approaching end of the steelworkers' contract. Most of the industry is now being struck by the United Steelworkers.

COW RESCUED

NORTH SMITHFIELD, R.I. (AP) — One of farmer William Green's herd of Ayrshire cows reached for a clump of poison ivy beside an unused well and fell in.

While Green held the cow's head above water, firemen pumped the well dry. A Nike site crew lifted the animal out with a hydraulic crane.

GIRL'S HEART IS REPAIRED BY SURGEON

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A report to the people of Mt. Carmel, Pa.—

Your neighbor, 4-year-old Bonnie Pavloski, is doing as well as could be expected today after a four-hour heart operation—an operation you so kindly made possible by raising $2,500.

A team of surgeons at the Albert Einstein Medical Center performed the operation Wednesday closing a hole the size of a quarter in her heart. And that's quite large when you consider her heart is only as big as her two tiny fists.

All Seems Well
Dr. Charles P. Bailey, chief surgeon, hopes that as soon as Bonnie gets over the immediate effects of the operation she'll be able to run and play—just like your children.

"Everything seems well," Dr. Bailey said. "But it will be a week before we'll really be sure she's okay."

Maybe you didn't know this, but Dr. Bailey tells us that nature responds to abnormal conditions and nature enabled Bonnie to survive this long.

Nature Helped
Here is Dr. Bailey's explanation of how nature gave Bonnie a lift. The heart is divided into four compartments. The hole in Bonnie's heart was in the partition between the lower two chambers, called ventricles, which pump blood into the lungs and the rest of the body.

The left ventricle is the high pressure chamber which feeds blood into the entire body. Its pressure ratio over the right ventricle, which feeds blood to the lungs, is 5-1.

Born With Condition
Now everytime Bonnie's ventricles contracted, the left one, the stronger one, would blow a good portion of its blood into her right ventricle, because of the hole. Therefore, her lungs were getting most of the blood and the body very little.

But nature intervened and increased Bonnie's pressure ratio to 4-3, decreasing the amount of blood that could escape through the hole to her right ventricle. Nature's action allowed the left ventricle enough blood to feed the rest of Bonnie's body and keep her alive, but there wasn't any to spare for hard play.

Bonnie was born with this condition. Her mother, Mrs. Francis Pavloski, brought her to specialists here several times. After various tests, they decided an operation was necessary, and you, through your help, made it possible.

WIDOWS OF FIREMEN MAY GET PENSIONS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The General Assembly has approved two measures which would authorize pensions for widows of firemen, policemen or employees of third class cities.

The two House-passed bills were unanimously approved Wednesday by the Senate and sent to Gov. Lawrence.

One bill provides that a city council may authorize payments

Plan Legal Sales Of Papers Sundays

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate has moved into position for final passage next week a bill which would specifically authorize the sale of newspapers on Sundays.

The bill would amend the Blue Laws, which ban all unnecessary activity on Sunday, to specifically exempt the Sunday sale of newspapers.

The bill received preliminary approval of the full Senate Wednesday.

If the proposal is approved by the Senate, it will then go to the House.

TV CREATORS ARE FAR AHEAD OF CALENDAR

NEW YORK (AP)—When most of us were packing the first picnic baskets of the season, the McGuire Sisters, bundled in furs under hot lights, were busy making a Christmas commercial.

Long before favorite sons dared make noises like candidates, the three major television networks were planning their coverage of the 1960 political conventions and subsequent presidential campaigns.

Right now, before the networks have confided to us viewers all the goodies their 1959-60 season holds, the creators of television programs are working on the 1961 and even 1962 menus.

What will we be looking at 18 months or more hence?

Richard Dorso, former Hollywood actor's agent and now director of new program development for Ziv Television Programs, predicts that, basically, it won't be much different from what we'll be looking at next season only better: Westerns, adventure, suspense, drama, variety and so on.

New ideas for TV shows, Dorso confesses, come from a wide variety of sources — newspaper items, magazine articles, even casual conversations. They also come, as every viewer must know, from successful shows — as witness the flood of copycat Westerns and now crime adventure shows with music.

And ideas also are borrowed from big mouths who tell what their companies are planning in the future — which is the reason Dorso is as close-mouthed as Greta Garbo about his current planning. Just about the only show idea he will discuss is one called "Challenge" scheduled to bow on NBC in September — but so long off his drawing board he's practically forgotten it.

"I'll tell you one place that show ideas never come from," he adds. "From amateurs. Invariably the people who tell you they have a great idea turn up something that's already been done or is absolutely impractical to do."

to the widows of retired city officials equal to half the pension the former employee was receiving when he died. It also provides that the widow shall continue to receive the money until her death unless she remarries.

The other bill would make similar provision for widows of policemen or firemen. It provides that the widow of any policeman or fireman killed in action after Jan. 1, 1960 would receive an amount equal to half of the pension the victim would have received upon retirement.

2 VETS PAIRED IN GOLF MATCH

LEBANON, Pa. (AP)—Two experienced performers with no championships between them were paired today in the 33rd annual Central Pennsylvania Women's Golf Tournament's semifinal round.

In what was expected to be the most exciting match of the week-long tourney, Mrs. John Dyson of Hazleton, the defending champion, as pitted against Miss Betty Fehl, of Reading. In the other semifinal, Miss Ann Rutherford, of Lebanon, met Mrs. T. C. Owings, of York.

The Hazleton woman has won the Central Pennsylvania championship three times. Miss Fehl is a six-time winner. Mrs. Dyson sank an eight-foot putt for a birdie on the 18th hole to eliminate Mrs. Joseph Ruvane, of Pocono Manor Country Club, 1 up Wednesday.

Miss Fehl, a former state champion, defeated Mrs. Joanne Creason, Harrisburg, the 1950 winner, 3 and 2. Miss Rutherford won over Mrs.

John Dunn, Hazleton, the 1952 champion, 4 and 3. Mrs. Owings eliminated another York woman, Mrs. W. Dale Anderson, 4 and 3. The championship will be decided Friday on the 6,176-yard Lebanon Country Club course.

GREECE WANTS PARISIAN TO RETURN VENUS

LONDON (AP) — Greece wants Britain to return priceless marble sculptures that were carted away to England from the Parthenon, the ruined temple embodying the glories of ancient Greece.

The stone fragments, depicting the heroic deeds of Greek warriors in the centuries before Christ, have been lodged in the British Museum for nearly 150 years.

And Britain appears eager to hang on to them — if possible.

The Parthenon, proudly looking down on Athens from the heights of the rocky Acropolis, surrendered its treasures to the English noble Lord Elgin in 1801. He brought them to Britain, where they were promptly dubbed the "Elgin Marbles."

Now the Greeks want them back in the surroundings that inspired their creation.

Time For Return
"It is about time our plundered ancestral treasures were returned to us," says Education Minister George Voyatzis, who supervises archeological affairs in Greece.

He also called for the return through an international body — presumably UNESCO — of the Venus de Milo and the Winged Victory in the Paris Louvre and the Mausoleum of Halicarnassus in the Berlin Museum.

"Their proper place is here, under the diaphanous sky of Greece," Voyatzis argued.

"Away from their natural setting they lose their sheen and aesthetic worth and degenerate into mere antiques."

The whole story started 2,300 years ago.

Built 500 B.C.
The Parthenon was built in the 5th Century before Christ. In its stone the greatest names in Athenian sculpture recorded for the ages battles of gods and giants, Greeks and Amazons, the birth of Athena and her contest with Poseidon for the land of Attica.

In successive centuries the Greek temple became a Christian church — after some of the pagan sculptures had been removed — and then a Turkish mosque, with a minaret added on top.

When the Venetians bombarded Athens in 1687, the Turks used the Parthenon as a powder magazine and much of the building was destroyed in an explosion.

In 1801 the Earl of Elgin, British envoy in Constantinople, and a long-time art lover, collected all the chipped and eroded sculptures lying on the ground and removed remains from the sections still standing.

Great Works
The great works of classical art, he said, would eventually be destroyed forever unless someone took action to preserve them.

As he brought the marbles to Britain, Elgin was bitterly accused of vandalism. Lord Byron, the romantic poet, wrote a scathing denunciation.

Finally in 1816 Parliament grudgingly voted to buy the fragments — but for less than half what Elgin had spent of his own money to rescue them.

A spokesman for the British Museum stated firmly that the fragments are not suffering from dampness as charged by the Greek education minister, and that their condition is constantly being checked.

Nor is the museum too worried that it may lose its prize exhibit. "The marbles were deposited with us by act of Parliament," the spokesman explained, "and it would take another act of Parliament to remove them."

"As far as we know no such action is being contemplated."

SPENDING OF MILLIONS IS ROUTINE JOB

By HUBBARD KEAVY

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Clem Beauchamp is a round, ruddy, good humored man in his 50s. His job is to spend other people's money by the millions.

One hundred million, or maybe two hundred million — he doesn't know the total for sure — has gone through his hands in 30 years.

Clem's base is Hollywood and his title is production manager of motion pictures. That makes him the business head of a producing unit.

At least 75 times during his career he has packed his bags, fresh account books and a trunk full of blank checks and taken off with movie companies for far places.

Handles The Details

He rents studios, or barns that will do, buys trucks and cars, sees that sets are built, hires lesser actors and extras and laborers, arranges for hotels, makes deals with caterers for the noon feeding — and tries to spend his employers' money with prudence.

But, equally importantly, he has to keep actors happy. If actors get temperamental — over poor food, or a lack of liquor or not-sogood-as-home beds — they don't work well and that causes delays. And the costs go up.

If Clem goes over his budget by too many hundreds of thousands, he could catch heck from the bankers who put up the money. Clem today wouldn't be one of Hollywood's half dozen most-sought production men if he tolerated expensive monkey business, especially by expensive actors.

Cooper No Trouble
How does he overcome temperamental?

"If they get difficult — and, boy, some of them can — you take them aside and have a nice little talk. You lay it on the line. They usually always respond. Now you take Gary Cooper, there's a man who never gave any one a bit of trouble. I vote him the world's most cooperative actor."

"Now the most cooperative actress I've ever seen is Olivia de Havilland. She's great."

Clem was in Australia happily spending 2½ million dollars for the Stanley Kramer company filming "On The Beach." Nevil Shute's story of the end of the world.

Why come all this way (and if you think Melbourne isn't an outrageous distance from Hollywood, fly it sometime) to make a movie? Movie artisans, with their know-how, are supposed to be able to duplicate any locale on the back lot.

Flight From Overhead

"Not any more," says Clem. "Because moviegoers demand, and get, more authenticity these days. We came here to film the actual locales of the story and to save money."

Save money?
"That's right. 'On The Beach' cost 2½ million here, but it would have cost 3¼ million in Hollywood."

Democrats Urge All Support For GOP?

NOGALES, Ariz. (AP) — The Arizona Democratic Committee mailed out a list of state and county candidates.

The committee urged, "Speak for them, vote for them and take this card to the polls with you." The committee urged support of K. W. Holbrook for county supervisor.

Holbrook is a Republican. The committee made a hurried correction.

I'll tell you why in a paragraph: "The scale for extras in Hollywood is $23 a day. Here $7. We use 2,500. A Hollywood studio carpenter gets $180 a week. Here, $45. The minimum for an experienced lighting cameraman at home is $350, but the scale here is $175."

HOW'S THAT?

LAGRANGE, Ind. (AP) — Raymond Troyer considered his musical ability had been slurred when he telephoned this classified ad to the LAGRANGE Standard: "For Sale, trombone and boxer pups." The ad came out reading: "For sale, trombone and box of plugs."

ABASHED

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — The proprietor of a neighborhood store here said his customer appeared a bit sheepish. He waded through deep snow to buy a can of artificial snow for his Christmas tree.

CAVALRY MASCOT

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Veterans of the famed First Cavalry Division have selected a mascot. He is 29-year-old Big Red, a cavalry mount retired by the Army when the division was disbanded in 1943.

Music Man's History Recorded By Author

NEW YORK (AP) — The backstage chronicle of "The Music Man," from idea to Broadway hit, has been written by Meredith Willson, author of the show's music, lyrics and story.

Entitled "Ya Got Trouble," the book is the second recent revelation by a writer of the problems of theater creation. William Gibson in "Seesaw Log" recounted the development of the comedy, "Two for the Seesaw."

TOOLS OF THE TRADE

LOOK, NO HANDS

CANNELTON, Ind. (AP) — Maj. Otis E. Saalman has invented an electrical device that automatically rocks an infant's cradle. He says it works on his own baby, producing sleep in three minutes flat.

GREEK CORNERSTONE

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A stone from the Areopagus where Paul the Apostle first preached to the Athenians is the cornerstone for the new St. Constantine Greek Orthodox Church here. It is a gift from the Greek government, removed from Mars Hill in Athens.

PATRIOTIC TOO

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — The Roanoke postoffice reports a 20 per cent drop in accidents involving postal trucks since the olive drab paint of the vehicles was changed to red, white and blue.

One Handed Indian Still Goes Hunting

LESTER MANOR, Va. (AP) — Chief Walter S. Bradley of the Pamunkey Indians is still getting his ducks and geese despite almost complete loss of use of his right hand.

The chief's Chesapeake retriever tripped over his gun and the discharge almost severed the Indian's right wrist. It looked like the end of 50 years of hunting for the chief, who used that right hand to pull the trigger of his gun. He didn't think he could learn to shoot from his left shoulder. But with an ingenious device on the forearm he can now pull the trigger with his left hand.

Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves compiled a 22-game hitting streak with the National League champions this spring.
